

Biography of Allyson Lorimer Crews

Allyson Lorimer Crews is a Deputy Chief U.S. Probation Officer in the District of Massachusetts. She oversees the Court Services Division, the Information Technology staff, and assists the Chief in administrative matters. She is currently a Federal Judicial Center (FJC) faculty facilitator and a member of the Administrative Office's Information Technology Advisory Council (ITAC). Ms. Crews began her career as a U.S. Probation Officer in 1998 and has held the positions of Sentencing Guidelines Specialist and Supervising U.S. Probation Officer. She has an undergraduate degree from Brown University and a Master's degree in Counseling Psychology from Boston College.