

Biography of Colin Owyang

Colin Owyang serves as the Deputy Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Colin was appointed by Attorney General Maura Healey in 2015 to provide executive oversight of the Criminal Bureau, Public Protection Bureau and related policy and strategic initiatives. Colin previously served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Boston, MA a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney in Washington, DC, a Trial Attorney in the Environmental Crimes Section of the U.S. Department of Justice, a judicial clerk to three U.S. District Judges in Detroit, MI and Boston, MA, a Commissioner on the Massachusetts Governor's Judicial Nominating Commission, a member of the U.S. District Court Magistrate Judge Appointment Committee, a member of the Boston Bar Association's leadership Council and as Senior Vice President and US General Counsel of National Grid. Colin graduated from Yale College, Yale University and the University of Michigan Law School.