

Biography of Sarah Kim

Sarah Kim is General Counsel at the Treasurer and Receiver General of Massachusetts, where she works on legal matters pertaining to the Massachusetts Treasury, including its subsidiary agencies and affiliated programs. Previously, Sarah served as the Assistant Attorney General in the Fraud & Financial Crimes Division at the MA Attorney General's Office. Before entering public service, Sarah worked for ten years at Bingham McCutchen LLP, where she focused her practice on securities enforcement, securities litigation, and broker-dealer defense. Sarah is a member of the Boston Bar Association Council, a past president of the Asian American Lawyers Association of Massachusetts, a long-time member of the board of the Asian Task Force Against Domestic Violence, and volunteer for Ricesticks & Tea Food Pantry. She is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Villanova University School of Law.