PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

May 5, 2011

PONSOR, D.J.

Counsel appeared for a scheduling conference on April 27, 2011. Based on counsel's representations, the court orders as follows:

1. All automatic disclosures will be made by May 11, 2011.
2. Plaintiffs will file their Motion for Class Certification no later than January 13, 2012.
3. Defendant may oppose this motion by February 28, 2012.
4. A reply to the opposition may be filed by Plaintiff by March 16, 2012.
5. Defendant may file a sur-reply by March 30, 2012.
6. Counsel will appear for argument on the Motion for Class Certification on April 9, 2012 at 2:00 p.m.

7. To insure that discovery is proceeding smoothly, counsel will appear for a status conference on July 15, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. This conference was originally set for July 13, but has been moved due to a conflict.

8. In preparation for the July 15 status conference, counsel will submit a joint status report by July 8, 2011.

9. As the court noted at the conference, disputed discovery motions will come directly to this court. To the extent that counsel wishes to offer argument on any disputed motions at the July 15 conference, the motions will be filed at least thirty days prior to the conference, to permit opposition within fourteen days after filing.

It is So Ordered.
