PREFACE

At the request of the Committee on Rules and Practice of the Judicial Conference of the United States, local rules dealing with civil practice have been renumbered to key them to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Accordingly, the numbering is not sequential. Criminal rules will be numbered from 100 to 199, and District Court rules relating to bankruptcy from 200 to 299.

RULE 1.1 TITLE

These rules shall be known as Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts and cited as "L.R., D. Mass." or "L.R."

Effective September 1, 1990.

RULE 1.2 APPLICATION

- (a) In General. These local rules shall apply to all proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

- (b) Cases Pending When Rules Adopted and Amended. These rules became effective in this form on September 1, 1990, and have been amended from time to time thereafter. They shall, except as applicable time periods may have run, govern all actions and proceedings pending on or commenced after the date of adoption or amendment. Where justice so requires, proceedings in designated cases or other matters before the court on the effective date of the adoption or amendment of these rules shall be governed by the practice of the court before the adoption of these rules.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective October 1, 1992.

RULE 1.3 SANCTIONS

Failure to comply with any of the directions or obligations set forth in, or authorized by, these rules may result in dismissal, default, or the imposition of other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the judicial officer.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992.

RULE 3.1 CIVIL COVER SHEET

The party filing the initial pleading shall also file a civil cover sheet in the form prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States (JS 44) and the local category sheet.

Effective September 1, 1990.

RULE 4.1 SERVICE OF PROCESS--DISMISSAL FOR FAILURE TO MAKE SERVICE

- (a) Time Limit. Any summons not returned with proof that it was served within 90 days of the filing of the complaint is deemed to be unserved for the purpose of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

- (b) Showing of Good Cause for Failure to Comply. Counsel and parties appearing pro se who seek to show good cause for the failure to make service within the 90-day period prescribed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) shall do so by filing a motion for enlargement of time under Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b), together with a supporting affidavit. If on the 14th day following the expiration of the 90-day period good cause has not been shown as provided herein, the clerk shall forthwith automatically enter an order of dismissal for failure to effect service of process, without awaiting any further order of the court. The clerk shall furnish a copy of this local rule to counsel or pro se plaintiffs, together with the summons. Such notice shall constitute the notice required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m). No further notice need be given by the court.

- (c) Service According to State Practice. In those cases where the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure authorize service of process to be made in accordance with state practice, it shall be the duty of counsel for the party seeking such service to furnish to the clerk forms of all necessary orders and sufficient copies of all papers to comply with the requirements of the state practice, together with specific instructions for the making of such service, if such service is to be made by the United States Marshal.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective January 2, 1995; December 1, 2009; May 6, 2016.

RULE 4.2 FEES

- (a) Generally. Except as otherwise provided by law, the clerk and other officers and employees of the court shall not be required to perform any service for a party other than the United States for which a fee is lawfully prescribed, unless the amount of the fee, if it is known, or an amount sufficient to cover the fee reasonably expected by the officer to come due for performance of the service has been deposited with the court.

- (b) Exceptions. This provision shall not apply to the United States or a party who is proceeding in forma pauperis, or in any other situation where, in the judgment of the officer entitled to a fee, it is unnecessary to ensure payment of the fee and would work hardship or an injustice.

- (c) Requests to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. The clerk shall receive for filing all complaints and petitions accompanied by a request to proceed in forma pauperis, and shall note the date of filing. If the request is denied, the matter will be noted on the miscellaneous business docket. If the request is allowed, or the denial is reversed, the clerk shall file the complaint or petition on the civil docket. Requests to proceed in forma pauperis shall be accompanied by an affidavit containing details of the individual's financial status. (The recommended form is available without charge from the clerk's office.)

- (d) Liability for Fees if Prevailing Party. In seamen's cases, or cases in which the plaintiff is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the plaintiff remains liable for filing and other fees in the event he or she is the prevailing party at settlement or otherwise, and he or she collects a money judgment or any costs taxed by the court or clerk. These fees are payable forthwith upon collection of any sums from the defendant.

- (e) Notices of Appeal. The clerk shall on request file notices of appeal whether or not accompanied by the required filing fee.

Effective September 1, 1990. [See Appendix A. Local Rule 4.2 Supplement].

RULE 5.1 FORM AND FILING OF PLEADINGS

(a) Form and Signing of Papers.

- (1) The provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 10 and 11 concerning the form and signing of pleadings, motions, and other documents shall be applicable to all documents filed in any proceeding in this court. The board of bar overseers registration number of each attorney signing such documents, except the United States Attorney and his or her staff, shall be inscribed below the signature.
- (2) All documents filed in the court shall be adapted for flat filing, be filed in 8 ½" x 11" printable format. All documents, except discovery requests and responses, shall be double-spaced except for the identification of counsel, title of the case, footnotes, quotations and exhibits. Discovery requests and responses shall be single-spaced. Except for complaints and notices of appeal, documents that do not conform to the requirements of this subsection shall be returned by the clerk.

(b) Time and Place of Filing. Except as noted in Fed. R. Civ. P. 33-36, all documents required to be served under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d) shall, unless otherwise submitted to the court, be electronically filed with the office of the clerk within 7 days after service has been made.

(c) Requests for Special Action. When any pleading or other document filed in the court includes a request for special process or relief, or any other request such that, if granted, the court will proceed other than in the ordinary course, the request shall, unless it is noted on the category sheet (see L.R. 40.1(a)(1)), be noted on the first page to the right of or immediately beneath the caption.

(d) Additional Copies. Whenever, because of the nature of a proceeding, such as a proceeding before a three-judge district court under 28 U.S.C. § 2284, additional courtesy copies necessary either for the use of the court or to enable the clerk to carry out his or her duties, it is the responsibility of the party filing or having filed the document to provide the necessary copies.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective December 1, 2009. Amended effective November 1, 2019

RULE 5.2 SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

- (a) Manner of Service. Service of all pleadings subsequent to the original complaint and of all other papers required to be served shall be made in the manner specified by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.
- (b) Service on Nonresident Attorney or Party Acting Pro Se.
- (1) Nonresident Attorney. On application of a party, the court may order an attorney who represents any other party and who does not maintain an office within this district where service can be made on the attorney by delivery as provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b) to designate a member of the bar of this court who does maintain such an office to receive service of all pleadings and other papers in his or her behalf.
- (2) Party Acting Pro Se. On application of a party, the court may order any other party who is appearing without an attorney and who does not maintain an office or residence within this district where service can be made on the party by delivery as provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b) to designate an address within the district at which service can be made on him or her by delivery.

Effective September 1, 1990. Amended effective November 1, 2019

RULE 5.3 [DELETED]

Effective May 6, 2003; deleted effective [_____].

RULE 5.4 FILING AND SERVICE BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

- (a) Electronic Filing Generally. Unless exempt or otherwise ordered by the court, all pleadings and other papers submitted to the court must be filed, signed, and verified by electronic means as provided herein.
- (b) ECF Administrative Procedures. Subject to the supervision of the court, the clerk will maintain Electronic Case Filing (ECF) Administrative Procedures, including procedures for the registration of attorneys and other authorized users and for distribution of passwords to permit electronic filing. All electronic filings must be made in accordance with the ECF Administrative Procedures. The ECF Administrative Procedures will be generally available to the public and shall be posted on the court's web site.
- (c) Service of Pleadings. Unless exempt or otherwise ordered by the court, all pleadings and other papers must be served on other parties by electronic means. Transmission of the Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) through the court's transmission facilities will constitute service of the filed document upon a registered ECF user.
- (d) Deadlines. Although the ECF system is generally available 24 hours a day for electronic filing, that availability will not alter filing deadlines, whether set by rule, court order, or stipulation. All electronic transmissions of documents must be completed prior to 6:00 p.m. to be considered timely filed that day.
- (e) Civil Case Opening Documents. All ECF filers registered in this district must file civil case opening documents, such as a complaint (or petition or notice of removal), civil action cover sheet, or category sheet, electronically. Cases which include sealed or ex parte documents and supporting materials presented contemporaneously with civil case opening documents may be filed and served initially in paper format and not electronically. Pro se filers, others exempt from electronic filing, or otherwise ordered by the court, may file case opening documents in paper format and not electronically. Whenever possible, at the time a civil case is submitted in paper format, the filing party may also file a disk with the clerk containing in PDF format the opening documents and any emergency motions and supporting papers not filed electronically.
- (f) State Court Record in Removal Proceedings. Within 28 days after filing a notice of removal in a civil action, a party removing an action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441-52 must electronically file certified or attested copies of all docket entries, records, and proceedings in the state. If exempt from electronic filing or otherwise ordered by the court, the removing party must file a disk with the clerk's office containing the state court record in PDF format.
- (g) Exemptions.
 - (1) Documents That Should Not Be Filed Electronically. The following types of documents must not be filed electronically:

- (A) sealed documents;
 - (B) ex parte motions;
 - (C) documents generated as part of an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) process;
 - (D) such other types of documents as the clerk may direct in the ECF Administrative Procedures.
- (2) Documents That Need Not Be Filed Electronically. The following types of documents need not be filed electronically, but may be scanned into the ECF system by a filing party or the clerk:
- (A) handwritten pleadings;
 - (B) documents filed by pro se litigants who are incarcerated or who are not registered ECF users;
 - (C) indictments, informations, criminal complaints, and the criminal JS45 form;
 - (D) affidavits for search or arrest warrants and related documents;
 - (E) documents received from another court under Fed. R. Crim. P. 20 or 40;
 - (F) appearance bonds;
 - (G) any document in a criminal case containing the original signature of a defendant, such as a waiver of indictment or a plea agreement;
 - (H) such other types of documents as the clerk may direct in the ECF Administrative Procedures.

Adopted October 3, 2005 to be effective January 1, 2006; amended effective January 1, 2009; December 1, 2009. Amended effective November 1, 2019

RULE 7.1 MOTION PRACTICE

(a) Control of Motion Practice.

- (1) *Plan for the Disposition of Motions. At the earliest practicable time, the judicial officer shall establish a framework for the disposition of motions, which, at the discretion of the judicial officer, may include specific deadlines or general time guidelines for filing motions. This framework may be amended from time to time by the judicial officer as required by the progress of the case.
- (2) *Motion Practice. No motion shall be filed unless counsel certify that they have conferred and have attempted in good faith to resolve or narrow the issue.
- (3) *Unresolved Motions. The court shall rule on motions as soon as practicable, having in mind the reporting requirements set forth in the Civil Justice Reform Act.

(b) Submission of Motion and Opposition to Motion.

- (1) *Submission of Motion. A party filing a motion shall at the same time file a memorandum of reasons, including citation of supporting authorities, why the motion should be granted. Affidavits and other documents setting forth or evidencing facts on which the motion is based shall be filed with the motion.
- (2) *Submission of Opposition to a Motion. A party opposing a motion shall file an opposition within 14 days after the motion is served, unless (1) the motion is for summary judgment, in which case the opposition shall be filed within 21 days after the motion is served, or (2) another period is fixed by rule or statute, or by order of the court. A party opposing a motion shall file in the same (rather than a separate) document a memorandum of reasons, including citation of supporting authorities, why the motion should not be granted. Affidavits and other documents setting forth or evidencing facts on which the opposition is based shall be filed with the opposition. The 14-day period is intended to include the period specified by the civil rules for mailing time and provide for a uniform period regardless of the use of the mails.
- (3) *Additional Papers. All other papers not filed as indicated in subsections (b)(1) and (2), whether in the form of a reply brief or otherwise, may be submitted only with leave of court.
- (4) *Length of Memoranda. Memoranda supporting or opposing allowance of motions shall not, without leave of court, exceed 20 pages, double-spaced.

- (c) Service. All papers filed pursuant to subsection (b) shall be served unless the moving party indicates in writing on the face of the motion that ex parte consideration is requested. Motions filed “ex parte” and related papers need not be served until the motion has been ruled upon or the court orders that service be made.
- (d) Request for Hearing. Any party making or opposing a motion who believes that oral argument may assist the court and wishes to be heard shall include a request for oral argument in a separate paragraph of the motion or opposition. The request should be set off with a centered caption, “REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT.”
- (e) Hearing. If the court concludes that there should be a hearing on a motion, the motion will be set down for hearing at such time as the court determines.
- (f) Decision of Motion Without Hearing. Motions that are not set down for hearing as provided in subsection (e) will be decided on the papers submitted after an opposition to the motion has been filed, or, if no opposition is filed, after the time for filing an opposition has elapsed.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective October 1, 1992; December 1, 2009

RULE 7.2 IMPOUNDED AND CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS

- (a) Generally. Whenever a party files a motion to impound, the motion shall contain a statement of the earliest date on which the impounding order may be lifted, or a statement, supported by good cause, that the material should be impounded until further order of the court. The impounded material will be scanned and docketed in CMECF and restricted from public access.
- (b) Expiration of Period. If the impoundment order provides a cut-off date but no arrangements for custody, the clerk (without further notice to the court or the parties) shall remove the restriction in CMECF and make the material available to the public upon expiration of the impoundment period.
- (c) Rulings on Motions. Motions for impoundment must be filed and ruled upon prior to submission of the actual material sought to be impounded, unless the court orders otherwise.
- (d) No Blanket Orders. The court will not enter blanket orders that counsel for a party may at any time file material with the clerk, marked confidential, with instructions that the clerk withhold the material from public inspection. A motion for impoundment must be presented each time a document or group of documents is to be filed.

Effective September 1, 1990. Amended effective November 1, 2019

RULE 7.3 [DELETED]

Adopted December 4, 2000; effective January 1, 2001; deleted effective [_____].

RULE 15.1 ADDITION OF NEW PARTIES

- (a) Amendments Adding Parties. Amendments adding parties shall be sought as soon as an attorney reasonably can be expected to have become aware of the identity of the proposed new party.
- (b) Service on New Party. A party moving to amend a pleading to add a new party shall serve, in the manner contemplated by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b), the motion to amend upon the proposed new party at least 14 days in advance of filing the motion, together with a separate document stating the date on which the motion will be filed. A motion to amend a pleading to add a new party shall be accompanied by a certificate stating that it has been served in advance on the new party as required by this rule.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995; December 1, 2009.

RULE 16.1 EARLY ASSESSMENT OF CASES

- (a) Scheduling Conference in Civil Cases. In every civil action, except in categories of actions exempted by L.R. 16.2 as inappropriate for scheduling procedures, the judicial officer shall convene a scheduling conference as soon as practicable, but in any event within 60 days after the appearance of a defendant and within 90 days after the complaint has been served on a defendant. In cases removed to this court from a state court or transferred from any other federal court, the judicial officer shall convene a scheduling conference within 60 days after removal or transfer.
- (b) Obligation of Counsel to Confer. Unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer, counsel for the parties must, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), confer at least 21 days before the date for the scheduling conference for the purpose of:
- (1) preparing an agenda of matters to be discussed at the scheduling conference,
 - (2) preparing a proposed pretrial schedule for the case that includes a plan for discovery, and
 - (3) considering whether they will consent to trial by magistrate judge.
- (c) Settlement Proposals. Unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer, the plaintiff shall present written settlement proposals to all defendants no later than 14 days before the date for the scheduling conference. Defense counsel shall have conferred with their clients on the subject of settlement before the scheduling conference and be prepared to respond to the proposals at the scheduling conference.
- (d) Joint Statement. Unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer, the parties are required to file, no later than 7 days before the scheduling conference and after consideration of the topics contemplated by Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b), 16(c), and 26(f), a joint statement containing a proposed pretrial schedule, which shall include:
- (1) a joint discovery plan scheduling the time and length for all discovery events, that shall
 - (a) conform to the obligation to limit discovery set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b), and
 - (b) take into account the desirability of conducting phased discovery in which the first phase is limited to developing information needed for a realistic assessment of the case and, if the case does not terminate, the second phase is directed at information needed to prepare for trial; and
 - (2) a proposed schedule for the filing of motions; and

- (3) certifications signed by counsel and by an authorized representative of each party affirming that each party and that party's counsel have conferred:
 - (A) with a view to establishing a budget for the costs of conducting the full course and various alternative courses--of the litigation; and
 - (B) to consider the resolution of the litigation through the use of alternative dispute resolution programs such as those outlined in L.R. 16.4.

To the extent that all parties are able to reach agreement on a proposed pretrial schedule, they shall so indicate. To the extent that the parties differ on what the pretrial schedule should be, they shall set forth separately the items on which they differ and indicate the nature of that difference. The purpose of the parties' proposed pretrial schedule or schedules shall be to advise the judicial officer of the parties' best estimates of the amounts of time they will need to accomplish specified pretrial steps. The parties' proposed agenda for the scheduling conference, and their proposed pretrial schedule or schedules, shall be considered by the judicial officer as advisory only.

- (e) Conduct of Scheduling Conference. At or following the scheduling conference, the judicial officer shall make an early determination of whether the case is "complex" or otherwise appropriate for careful and deliberate monitoring in an individualized and case-specific manner. The judicial officer shall consider assigning any case so categorized to a case management conference or series of conferences under L.R. 16.3. The factors to be considered by the judicial officer in making this decision include:
 - (1) the complexity of the case (the number of parties, claims, and defenses raised, the legal difficulty of the issues presented, and the factual difficulty of the subject matter);
 - (2) the amount of time reasonably needed by the litigants and their attorneys to prepare the case for trial;
 - (3) the judicial and other resources required and available for the preparation and disposition of the case;
 - (4) whether the case belongs to those categories of cases that:
 - (A) involve little or no discovery,
 - (B) ordinarily require little or no additional judicial intervention, or
 - (C) generally fall into identifiable and easily managed patterns;
 - (5) the extent to which individualized and case-specific treatment will promote the goal of reducing cost and delay in civil litigation; and

- (6) whether the public interest requires that the case receive intense judicial attention.

In other respects, the scheduling conference shall be conducted according to the provisions for a pretrial conference under Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 and for a case management conference under L.R. 16.3.

- (f) Scheduling Orders. Following the conference, the judicial officer shall enter a scheduling order that will govern the pretrial phase of the case. Unless the judicial officer determines otherwise, the scheduling order shall include specific deadlines or general time frameworks for:
 - (1) amendments to the pleadings;
 - (2) service of, and compliance with, written discovery requests;
 - (3) the completion of depositions, including, if applicable, the terms for taking and using videotape depositions;
 - (4) the identification of trial experts;
 - (5) the sequence of disclosure of information regarding experts contemplated by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b);
 - (6) the filing of motions;
 - (7) a settlement conference, to be attended by trial counsel and, in the discretion of the judicial officer, their clients;
 - (8) one or more case management conferences and/or the final pretrial conference;
 - (9) a final pretrial conference, which shall occur within 18 months after the filing of the complaint;
 - (10) the joinder of any additional parties;
 - (11) any other procedural matter that the judicial officer determines is appropriate for the fair and efficient management of the litigation.
- (g) Modification of Scheduling Order. The scheduling order shall specify that its provisions, including any deadlines, having been established with the participation of all parties, can be modified only by order of the judicial officer, and only upon a showing of good cause supported by affidavits, other evidentiary materials, or references to pertinent portions of the record.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995; December 10, 1996; December 4, 2000; January 2, 2001; December 1, 2009; June 7, 2016 .

RULE 16.2 EXEMPTIONS FROM FED. R. CIV. P. 16(b)

RULE 16.3 CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES

- (a) Conduct of Case Management Conferences. Case management conferences shall be presided over by a judicial officer who, in furtherance of the scheduling order required by L.R. 16.1(f), may:
- (1) explore the possibility of settlement;
 - (2) identify or formulate (or order the attorneys to formulate) the principal issues in contention;
 - (3) prepare (or order the attorneys to prepare) a specific discovery schedule and discovery plan that, if the presiding judicial officer deems appropriate, might:
 - (A) identify and limit the volume of discovery available in order to avoid unnecessary or unduly burdensome or expensive discovery;
 - (B) sequence discovery into two or more stages; and
 - (C) include time limits set for the completion of discovery;
 - (4) establish deadlines for filing motions and a time framework for their disposition;
 - (5) provide for the “phased resolution” or “bifurcation of issues for trial” consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(b); and
 - (6) explore any other matter that the judicial officer determines is appropriate for the fair and efficient management of the litigation.
- (b) Obligation of Counsel to Confer. The judicial officer may require counsel for the parties to confer before the case management conference for the purpose of preparing a joint statement containing:
- (1) an agenda of matters that one or more parties believe should be addressed at the conference; and
 - (2) a report advising the judicial officer whether the case is progressing within the allotted time limits and in accord with the specified pretrial steps.

This statement is to be filed with the court no later than 7 days before the case management conference.

- (c) Additional Case Management Conferences. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prevent the convening of additional case management conferences by the judicial officer as may be thought appropriate in the circumstances of the particular case. In any event, a conference should not terminate without the parties being instructed as to when and for what purpose they are to return to the court.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992, amended effective December 1, 2009.

RULE 16.4 ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- (a) Generally. The judicial officer assigned to preside over the case shall encourage the resolution of disputes by settlement or other alternative dispute resolution programs.
- (b) Settlement. At every conference conducted under these rules, the judicial officer shall inquire as to the utility of the parties conducting settlement negotiations, explore means of facilitating those negotiations, and offer whatever assistance may be appropriate in the circumstances. Assistance may include a reference of the case to another judicial officer for settlement purposes. Whenever a settlement conference is held, a representative of each party who has settlement authority must attend in person or be available by telephone, with permission of the judicial officer presiding over the settlement conference.
- (c) Alternative Dispute Resolution Programs.
 - (1) Discretion of Judicial Officer. The judicial officer, following an exploration of the matter with all counsel, may refer appropriate cases to alternative dispute resolution programs that have been designated for use in the court or that the judicial officer may make available. The dispute resolution programs described in subsections (2) through (4) are illustrative, not exclusive. Moreover, nothing herein shall preclude the parties from engaging in private dispute resolution programs as long as they comply with any schedule established by the court.
 - (2) Mediation.
 - (A) The judicial officer may refer the case to mediation upon the agreement of all parties.
 - (B) The mediator selected will be assigned from the senior district judges and magistrate judges who have volunteered to handle alternative dispute resolution matters.
 - (C) The mediator shall meet, either jointly or separately, with each party and counsel for each party and shall take any other steps that may appear appropriate in order to assist the parties to resolve the impasse or controversy. A representative of each party with settlement authority must attend each mediation session unless alternative arrangements are approved by the mediator.
 - (D) If mediation does not result in a resolution of the dispute, the mediator shall promptly report the termination of mediation to the judicial officer.
 - (E) If an agreement is reached between the parties on any issues, the mediator shall make appropriate note of that agreement and refer the parties to the judicial officer for entry of a court order.

- (F) Any communication related to the subject matter of the dispute made during the mediation by any participant, mediator, or any other person present at the mediation shall be a confidential communication to the full extent contemplated by Fed. R. Evid. 408. No admission, representation, statement, or other confidential communication made in setting up or conducting the proceedings not otherwise discoverable or obtainable shall be admissible as evidence or subject to discovery.
 - (G) Mediators serve under the supervision of the liaison magistrate judge in charge of the alternative dispute resolution program and the chief judge.
- (3) Other Alternate Dispute Resolution Programs. Use of mediation is not exclusive. At the request of parties, the judicial officer may consider other forms of alternative dispute resolution including, but not limited to, mini-trial, summary jury trial and arbitration.
- (4) Limited Appointment of Counsel.
- (A) Upon request of an unrepresented party, the judicial officer may appoint counsel for the limited purpose of providing legal advice and representation in preparation for and during the course of mediation or early neutral evaluation ordered under this rule. Although the scope of this representation is limited, counsel shall provide such services as counsel deems appropriate to the mediation, including but not limited to review of the pleadings, communication with opposing counsel, and interviews with the client and such key witnesses as may be necessary in advance of the mediation or early neutral evaluation.
 - (B) Counsel appointed under this subsection shall be a member in good standing of the bar of this court, shall agree to serve without compensation from the party and shall file a limited representation appearance on a form provided by the clerk confirming counsel's consent to serve pro bono and for the limited purpose of assisting the otherwise unrepresented party in the alternative dispute resolution process ordered for the case in which the appearance is filed. The client shall be required to sign the entry of appearance as an indication of the client's consent to and understanding of the nature of the limited scope of representation.
 - (C) The court-appointed representation shall terminate, and appointed counsel shall have no further obligation to advise or otherwise appear on behalf of the party, when the alternative dispute resolution process is concluded and any resulting settlement agreement is executed. Nothing in this rule prohibits the party and counsel from continuing the legal representation on terms they may negotiate, subject to approval of the court. Appointed counsel may not condition the undertaking of the party's representation on the making of such agreement.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992, amended June 2, 2015.

RULE 16.5 FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

- (a) Schedule of Conference. The judicial officer to whom the case is assigned for trial may set a new date for the final pretrial conference if that judicial officer determines that resolution of the case through settlement or some other form of alternative dispute resolution is imminent.
- (b) Representation by Counsel; Settlement. Unless excused by the judicial officer to whom the case is assigned for trial, each party shall be represented at the final pretrial conference by counsel who will conduct the trial. Counsel shall have full authority from their clients with respect to settlement and shall be prepared to advise that judicial officer as to the prospects of settlement.
- (c) Disclosures Preliminary to the Pretrial Conference. As provided in L.R. 26.4(a), the disclosure regarding experts required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) shall be made at least 90 days before the final pretrial conference. No later than 28 days before the date of the pretrial conference the parties shall make the pretrial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). P. 26(a)(3) shall be made before counsel confer regarding the pretrial memorandum, shall be a subject of their conference and shall not be filed with the court unless the objections cannot be resolved. Filing of such objections shall be made pursuant to subsection (d)(12) of this rule.
- (d) Obligation of Counsel to Confer and Prepare Pretrial Memorandum. Unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer to whom the case is assigned for trial, counsel for the parties shall confer no later than 14 days before the date of the final pretrial conference for the purpose of jointly preparing a pretrial memorandum for submission to the judicial officer. Unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer to whom the case is assigned for trial, the parties are required to file, no later than 7 days prior to the pretrial conference, a joint pretrial memorandum which shall set forth:

 - (11) the proposed exhibits; and
 - (12) the parties' respective positions on any remaining objections to the evidence identified in the pretrial disclosure required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).
- (e) Conduct of Conference. The agenda of the final pretrial conference, when possible and appropriate, shall include:
- (1) a final and binding definition of the issues to be tried;
 - (2) the disclosure of expected and potential witnesses and the substance of their testimony;
 - (3) the exchange of all proposed exhibits;
 - (4) a pretrial ruling on objections to evidence;
 - (5) the elimination of unnecessary or redundant proof, including the limitation of expert witnesses;
 - (6) a consideration of the bifurcation of the issues to be tried;

 - (9) a consideration of means for enhancing jury comprehension and simplifying and expediting the trial;
 - (10) a consideration of the feasibility of presenting direct testimony by written statement;

- (11) the exploration of possible agreement among the parties on various issues and encouragement of a stipulation from the parties, when that will serve the ends of justice, including:
 - (A) that direct testimony of some or all witnesses will be taken in narrative or affidavit form, with right of cross-examination reserved;
 - (B) that evidence in affidavit form will be read to the jury by the witnesses, or by counsel or another reader with court approval; and

- (f) Trial Brief. A trial brief, including requests for rulings or instructions, shall be filed by each party 7 days before the commencement of trial. Each party may supplement these requests at the trial if the evidence develops otherwise than as anticipated.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995; December 1, 2009.

RULE 16.6 PATENT PROCEEDINGS

- (a) Applicability of Rule. Except as otherwise provided in any federal rule or statute (including the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Patent Act), the following procedures and deadlines shall govern all actions, including declaratory judgment actions, involving disputes over the infringement, validity, or enforceability of a United States patent. In the event of a conflict between this rule and another local rule of this court, this rule shall control.

The court may modify the obligations or deadlines set forth in this rule based on the circumstances of the particular case, including the simplicity or complexity of the case as shown by the patents, claims, products, or parties involved.

- (b) Definitions. As used in this rule, the following terms shall have the following meanings.

- (1) Patentee. The term “patentee” refers to the party that owns or otherwise has rights to assert the patent(s)-in-suit, such as an exclusive licensee.
- (2) Accused Infringer. The term “accused infringer” refers to the party accused of infringement or, in the case of a declaratory judgment action, the party challenging the validity, enforceability, or infringement of the patent(s)-in-suit.
- (3) Real Party in Interest – Patentee. The term “real party in interest,” when used with respect to the patentee, refers to any person or entity that, alone or in combination, owns a controlling interest in, or otherwise controls, the patentee or the patent(s)-in-suit, and to any person or entity that, alone or in combination, owns a controlling interest in, or otherwise controls, an entity that owns or controls the patentee or patent(s)-in-suit.
- (4) Real Party in Interest – Accused Infringer. The term “real party in interest,” when used with respect to the accused infringer, refers to any person or entity that, alone or in combination, owns a controlling interest in, or otherwise controls, the accused infringer.

- (c) Scheduling Procedures. At the initial scheduling conference under L.R. 16.1 and 16.3, the court shall set a schedule in accordance with the following provisions.

- (1) Trial. The court shall schedule a trial (whether bench or jury) to be held within 24 months after the conference.
- (2) Claim-Construction Hearing. The court shall schedule a claim-construction hearing to be held within 9 months after the conference.
- (3) Status Conferences. The court may consider the need for periodic status conferences, including a status conference to be held after the claim construction hearing but before the end of discovery. If the court schedules a post-Markman- hearing status conference, the parties shall meet and confer at least 14 days before the status conference to discuss the following issues:

- (A) the impact of the claim-construction ruling, if the ruling is then available;
- (B) narrowing of the issues;
- (C) proposed adjustments to the scheduling order; and
- (D) whether all parties agree to seek mediation or other alternative dispute resolution pursuant to L.R. 16.4.

The parties shall file, at least 7 days before such a status conference, a joint statement addressing those issues.

- (4) Fact Discovery. The court shall set the close of fact discovery for no later than 15 months after the initial scheduling conference, or 60 days after entry of the court's ruling on claim construction, whichever is later.
 - (5) Expert Discovery. The court shall set the close of expert discovery for no later than 18 months after the initial scheduling conference, or 90 days after the close of fact discovery, whichever is later.
 - (6) Protective Order. If the parties seek protections beyond those provided in the default protective order set forth in subsection (d)(6), they should submit a proposed protective order with the joint statement. If there is not complete agreement as to its terms, then the plaintiff's position and the defendant's position should be identified in the proposal. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the right of any party to seek additional or different protections at a later time.
- (d) Automatic Patent-Related Disclosures. In addition to the automatic required disclosures required by L.R. 26.2(a), the parties shall make the following additional disclosures. Such disclosures shall be made to all opposing parties, but should not be filed with the court.
- (1) Patentee's Preliminary Patent-Related Disclosures. Not later than 21 days after the initial scheduling conference under L.R. 16.1 and 16.3, or at such other time as the court may order, the patentee shall make the following disclosures:
 - (A) Infringement Claim Charts. Infringement claim charts identifying, with as much specificity as reasonably possible from publicly available information or other information then within the patentee's possession, custody, or control:
 - (i) each accused product and/or method;
 - (ii) the patent(s) and the claim(s) each product or method allegedly infringes;

- (iii) an element-by-element description of where and how each element of each asserted claim is found in each accused product or method;
 - (iv) as to each element that the patentee contends is a means-plus function term under 35 U.S.C. § 112, the identity of the structures, acts, or materials in the accused product(s) or method(s) that perform the claimed function;
 - (v) whether each element of each asserted claim is asserted to be present literally or under the doctrine of equivalents;
 - (vi) which subsections of 35 U.S.C. § 271 apply; and
 - (vi) if any alleged infringement is based on the acts of multiple parties, the role of each such party in the infringement.
- (B) Prosecution History. Copies of the prosecution histories for each asserted patent, including any parent applications and provisional applications from which the asserted patents descend and to which each asserted patent claims priority. The patentee shall also produce any non-privileged documents in its possession, custody, or control concerning the conception and reduction to practice of the invention claimed in the asserted patents, including but not limited to lab notebooks (electronic or otherwise).
- (C) Ownership Evidence. Documents (including, without limitation, any licenses or assignments) sufficient to establish that the patentee owns the asserted patent(s) or has the authority to assert the patent(s).
- (D) Real Parties in Interest. Documents sufficient to establish the identity of all real parties in interest as to the patentee and the asserted patent(s).
- (2) Conference Concerning Preliminary Patent Disclosures. Not later than 21 days after the patentee's preliminary disclosures, the parties shall meet and confer about the following issues:
- (A) the sufficiency of the patentee's disclosures under subsection (d)(1); provided, however, that those disclosures, as well as the accused infringer's disclosures in subsection (d)(4), are preliminary and may be amended with leave of court during the discovery period; and
 - (B) a plan for the accused infringer's compliance with the disclosure requirements of subsection (d)(4), including the feasibility of, and procedures for, production or inspection of exemplary samples of the accused products and methods, technical documents, and/or source code.

- (3) Effect of Incomplete or Disputed Disclosures. The parties' failure to agree on the sufficiency of the patentee's disclosures or a plan for the accused infringer's compliance with its disclosure obligations shall not entitle the accused infringer to avoid or delay its disclosure obligations in subsection (d)(4).
- (4) Accused Infringer's Preliminary Production of Technical Documents, Source Code, and Samples of Accused Products. Not later than 21 days after the conference required under subsection (d)(2), and subject to any agreement of the parties as to the contours of production or inspection, the accused infringer shall make the following disclosures:
- (A) Technical Documents. Documents sufficient to show the composition, operation, construction, and performance of the accused components, elements, or functionality identified in the patentee's infringement claim charts under subsection (d)(1)(A). Such documents may include, for example, source code, specifications, schematics, flow charts, artwork, and formulas.
 - (B) Samples. Sufficient samples of the accused products (or products that perform or were produced by the accused methods). When production is not practicable, the accused infringer shall permit inspection of the accused product(s) or method(s), provided that the accused infringer is only required to permit inspection of a method that continues to be practiced in the ordinary course of business.
 - (C) Source Code. Source code, if relevant, subject to any protective order or procedures on which the parties may agree.
 - (D) Noninfringement Claim Charts. Noninfringement charts identifying specifically which elements of the asserted claims each accused product or method fails to practice.
 - (E) Invalidity Claim Charts – Anticipation or Obviousness. Invalidity claim charts identifying all prior art that such party contends anticipates or renders obvious the patent claims identified by the patentee.
 - (i) For each such prior-art reference, the accused infringer shall specify whether it anticipates or renders the asserted claim obvious and shall also identify specifically where in each alleged reference each element of each asserted claim can be found. For each element that the accused infringer contends is a means-plus-function term under 35 U.S.C. § 112, the chart shall include the identity of the structures, acts, or materials in each prior-art reference that perform the claimed function.

- (ii) If the accused infringer asserts that a combination of prior-art references renders a claim obvious, then the accused infringer shall identify each such combination and the reason to combine the references. For each combination, the accused infringer shall identify specifically where in the combination of references each element of each asserted claim can be found. For each element that the accused infringer contends is a means-plus-function term under 35 U.S.C. § 112, the chart shall include the identity of the structures, acts, or materials in each combination that performs the claimed function. If applicable, the accused infringer shall also identify the primary and secondary references in each such combination.

- (F) Other Grounds for Invalidity. Any asserted grounds of invalidity based on patentability under 35 U.S.C. § 101, indefiniteness under 35 U.S.C. § 112, or lack of enablement or written description under 35 U.S.C. § 112 of any of the asserted claims.
 - (G) Supporting Evidence for Invalidity Defense. Documents sufficient to support any asserted invalidity defense.
 - (H) Identity of Real Parties in Interest. Documents sufficient to establish the identity of all real parties in interest as to the accused infringer.
- (5) Amendments to Preliminary Patent-Related Disclosures. The preliminary patent-related disclosures of subsections (d)(1) and (d)(4) may be amended and supplemented only by leave of court upon a timely showing of good cause. Nonexhaustive examples of circumstances that may, absent undue prejudice to the nonmoving party, support a finding of good cause include:
- (A) a claim construction by the court that is different from that proposed by the party seeking amendment within 28 days of the court's claim construction ruling,
 - (B) discovery of material prior art that was not located, despite diligent efforts, before the service of the invalidity contentions; and
 - (C) discovery of nonpublic information about the asserted infringement that was not discovered or located, despite diligent efforts, before the service of the infringement claim charts.

The duty to supplement discovery responses does not excuse the need to obtain leave of court to amend disclosures. If one party is allowed to amend its disclosures, the opposing party may, within 28 days after service of the amended disclosure, serve responsive amended disclosures.

- (6) Default Protective Order. As set forth in subsection (c)(6), any party may seek a case-specific protective order. Until such a case-specific protective order is entered, the following default protective order shall govern the handling of confidential information:

Documents and information that either party in good faith believes are confidential may be produced in discovery with the designation “Confidential Pursuant to the Court’s Default PO.” Until such time as the designation is altered or removed by the parties’ agreement or by court order, a so-designated document may only be accessed by the parties’ outside counsel, the court, and their personnel.

- (7) Challenges to Confidentiality Designations. Any party may move to challenge or amend the confidentiality designations of any documents or information produced under subsections (d)(1)-(5).

- (8) Relation to Other Discovery. In addition to the automatic disclosures, any party may conduct other forms of discovery, including interrogatories, requests for production of documents, requests for admissions, and depositions, in accordance with any scheduling order set by the court.

- (9) Resolution of Disputes. Any party seeking to file a motion to resolve a dispute arising out of these disclosure obligations must follow the procedures applicable to discovery disputes set forth in L.R. 37.1.

(e) Claim-Construction Proceedings.

(1) Joint Statement.

- (A) Not later than 21 days after completion of the automatic patent-related disclosures of subsections (d)(1)-(4), the parties shall simultaneously exchange a list of claim terms to be construed and their proposed constructions.
- (B) Within 7 days of the exchange of claim terms, the parties shall confer to see if agreement can be reached on the construction of claim terms and the number of claims to be considered.
- (C) The parties may jointly present to the court no more than 10 claim terms for construction; provided, however, that, for good cause, either party, after conferring with the other parties, may petition the court to increase the number of claim terms for construction. Factors supporting good cause include, without limitation, the complexity of the patented technology, the number of asserted claims and patents, the lack of relation among the asserted patents, the number and complexity of invalidity defenses, and the number and diversity of accused products or methods.

- (D) Within 14 days after the exchange of claim terms, the parties shall prepare and file a joint statement of the number of claims and terms to be construed. The joint statement shall include a joint claim-construction chart listing the claim terms in the order in which the parties would like the court to construe them and noting each party’s proposed construction of each term. The parties may use the form shown below.

TERM	PATENT OWNER’S CONSTRUCTION	ACCUSED INFRINGER’S CONSTRUCTION	COURT’S CONSTRUCTION

- (2) Opening Claim-Construction Briefs. Not later than 21 days after filing the joint statement, the parties shall simultaneously exchange and file opening claim construction briefs.
- (3) Expert Testimony. Any party seeking to rely on expert testimony to support claim construction must include with its opening brief an expert declaration. The offering party must make the expert available for deposition not later than 21 days before the responsive due date. Either party may cite to the expert deposition testimony in its responsive brief. Other than the initial declaration and deposition testimony, no further expert testimony shall be permitted unless the court requests further testimony or for good cause shown.
- (4) Responsive Briefs. Not later than 42 days following exchange and filing of the opening claim-construction briefs, the parties shall simultaneously exchange and file responsive briefs. This 42-day response period is intended to allow for depositions of opposing experts.
- (5) Page Limits. Absent leave of court, the page limits of L.R. 7.1(b)(4) shall apply to all briefs.
- (6) Tutorials. At the court’s request, the parties may exchange and file tutorials, preferably in the form of a short video or slide presentation, at least 14 days before the claim-construction hearing. The court may also, at its own election, seek an independent third party to educate the court on the disputed technology.
- (7) Hearing. Unless the court orders otherwise, the claim-construction hearing shall proceed by attorney argument only. Any party seeking to present live witness testimony (expert or otherwise) at the hearing must obtain the court's approval, which it may grant in its discretion. The court may also order an evidentiary hearing sua sponte.

- (f) Reliance on Advice of Counsel. The following requirements apply to any party relying on advice of counsel as part of a patent-related claim or defense.
- (1) Disclosure of Written Opinion. Not later than 28 days after entry of the court's claim-construction ruling, each party relying upon advice of counsel must produce the opinion(s) and any other documentation relating to the opinion as to which that party agrees the attorney-client or work-product protection has been waived.
 - (2) Disclosure of Oral Advice. If a party is relying on oral advice, such party must, within 28 days of the court's claim-construction ruling, provide a written summary of any oral advice and produce or make available for inspection and copying any documents related to, or supporting, the summary for which the attorney-client and work-product protection has been waived and make available for deposition the people involved.
 - (3) Privilege Log. Each party relying upon advice of counsel must, at the time of any disclosure under subsection (1) or (2), also serve a privilege log identifying any other documents, except those authored by counsel acting solely as trial counsel, relating to the subject matter of the opinion(s) that the party is withholding on the grounds of attorney-client privilege or work-product protection.
 - (4) Failure to Comply. A party that does not comply with these requirements will not be permitted to rely on the advice of counsel for any purpose, absent a stipulation of all parties or an order of the court, which will be granted only for good cause shown.

Adopted effective June 1, 2018.

RULE 26.1 CONTROL OF DISCOVERY

- (a) Cooperative Discovery. The judicial officer should encourage cost effective discovery by means of voluntary exchange of information among litigants and their attorneys. This may be accomplished through the use of:
- (1) informal, cooperative discovery practices in which counsel provide information to opposing counsel without resort to formal discovery procedures; or
 - (2) stipulations entered into by the parties with respect to deposition notices, waiver of signing, and other matters, except that the parties may not enter into stipulations extending the time for responding to discovery requests or otherwise modify discovery procedures ordered by the judicial officer.
- (b) Disclosure Orders. The judicial officer may order the parties to submit at the scheduling conference, or at any subsequent time the officer deems appropriate, sworn statements disclosing certain information to every other party. At the discretion of the judicial officer, this order may direct the submission of:
- (1) a sworn statement from a claimant, whether plaintiff, third-party plaintiff, crossclaimant, or counter-claimant, that:
 - (A) itemizes all economic loss and provides a computation of damages for which recovery is sought, if any, sustained before the date of service of process;
 - (B) identifies all persons then known to the claimant or the claimant's attorney who witnessed or participated in the transaction or occurrence giving rise to the claim or otherwise known or believed to have substantial discoverable information about the claim or defenses, together with a statement of the subject and a brief summary of that information;
 - (C) identifies all opposing parties, and all officers, directors, and employees of opposing parties, from whom statements have been obtained by or on behalf of the claimant regarding the subject matter of the claim; and
 - (D) identifies all governmental agencies or officials then known to the claimant or the claimant's attorney to have investigated the transaction or occurrence giving rise to the claim; and
 - (2) a sworn statement from a defendant, whether the direct defendant, third-party defendant, crossclaim defendant, or counterclaim defendant, that identifies:

- (A) all persons then known to the defendant or the defendant's attorneys who witnessed the transaction or occurrence giving rise to the claim or otherwise is known or believed to have substantial discoverable information about the claims or defenses, together with a statement of the subject and a brief summary of that information;
- (B) all opposing parties, and all officers, directors, and employees of opposing parties, from whom statements have been obtained by or on behalf of the defendant regarding the subject matter of the claims or defenses; and
- (C) all government agencies or officials then known to the defendant or the defendant's attorneys to have investigated the transaction or occurrence giving rise to the claims or defenses.

Noncompliance may be excused only by order of the judicial officer.

- (c) Discovery Event Limitations. Unless the judicial officer orders otherwise, the number of discovery events shall be limited for each side (or group of parties with a common interest) to 10 depositions, 25 interrogatories, 25 requests for admissions, and 2 separate sets of requests for production. For purposes of determining the number of interrogatories propounded, subparts of a basic interrogatory which are logical extensions of the basic interrogatory and seek only to obtain specified additional particularized information with respect to the basic interrogatory shall not be counted separately from the basic interrogatory.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 26.2 SEQUENCES OF DISCOVERY

- (a) Automatic Required Disclosure. Unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer, the disclosure required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) should be made as soon as practicable and in any event must be made at or within 14 days after the meeting required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and L.R. 16.1(b). Except as provided in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(2), and unless otherwise ordered by the judicial officer, a party must provide to other parties disclosure of the information and materials called for by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) before that party may initiate discovery.
- (b) Further Discovery. Should a party exhaust the opportunities for any type of discovery events under L.R. 26.1(c), any requests that such party may make for additional interrogatories, depositions, admissions or the production of documents beyond that allowed pursuant to L.R. 26.1(c) shall be by discovery motion. All requests for additional discovery events, extensions of deadlines, for the completion of discovery or for postponement of the trial must be signed by the attorney and the party making the request.
- (c) Certification of Discovery Motions. The judicial officer shall not consider any discovery motion that is not accompanied by a certification, as required by L.R. 7.1(a)(2) and L.R. 37.1(b), that the moving party has made a reasonable and good faith effort to reach agreement with opposing counsel on the matters set forth in the motion. In evaluating any discovery motion, the judicial officer may consider the desirability of conducting phased discovery, as contemplated by L.R. 26.3.
- (d) Removed and Transferred Actions. In all actions removed to this court or transferred to this court from another federal court, the submission required by subsection (a) shall be made as prescribed in that subsection, and if discovery was initiated before the action being removed or transferred to this court, then the submission required by subsection (a) shall be made within 21 days of the date of removal or transfer.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995; December 10, 1996; December 4, 2000; December 1, 2009.

RULE 26.3 PHASING OF DISCOVERY

In order to facilitate settlement and the efficient completion of discovery, the judicial officer has discretion to structure discovery activities by phasing and sequencing the topics which are the subject of discovery. For example, an order may be framed limiting the first phase to developing information needed for a realistic assessment of the case. If the case does not terminate, the second phase would be directed at information needed to prepare for trial.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 26.4 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING EXPERTS

- (a) Objections to Expert Witnesses. Unless otherwise directed by the judicial officer, the disclosure regarding experts required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) shall be made at least 90 days before the final pretrial conference. A party who intends to object to the qualifications of an expert witness, or to the introduction of any proposed exhibit related to that expert's testimony, shall give written notice of the grounds of objection, together with supporting authority, to all other parties no later than the time for such objections provided in L.R. 16.5(c).
- (b) Setting Terms and Conditions. At the final pretrial conference, the judicial officer shall consider:
- (1) precluding the appearance of expert witnesses not timely identified;
 - (2) precluding use of any trial testimony by an expert at variance with any written statement or any deposition testimony;
 - (3) making a ruling concerning the use of expert depositions, including video depositions at trial; and
 - (4) making any other ruling on the admissibility of expert testimony at the trial.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 26.5 UNIFORM DEFINITIONS IN DISCOVERY REQUESTS

- (a) Incorporation by Reference and Limitations. The full text of the definitions set forth in subsection (c) is deemed incorporated by reference into all discovery requests, but shall not preclude
- (1) the definition of other terms specific to the particular litigation;
 - (2) the use of abbreviations; or
 - (3) a narrower definition of a term defined in subsection (c).
- (b) Effect on Scope of Discovery. This rule is not intended to broaden or narrow the scope of discovery permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- (c) Definitions. The following definitions apply to all discovery requests:
- (1) Communication. The term “communication” means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise).
 - (2) Document. The term “document” is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of this term in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a). A draft or nonidentical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.
 - (3) Identify (With Respect to Persons). When referring to a person, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the person’s full name, present or last known address, and, when referring to a natural person, the present or last known place of employment. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this subsection, only the name of that person need be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting the identification of that person.
 - (4) Identify (With Respect to Documents). When referring to documents, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the
 - (A) type of document;
 - (B) general subject matter;
 - (C) date of the document; and
 - (D) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

- (5) Parties. The terms “plaintiff” and “defendant” as well as a party’s full or abbreviated name or a pronoun referring to a party mean the party and, where applicable, its officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates. This definition is not intended to impose a discovery obligation on any person who is not a party to the litigation.
- (6) Person. The term “person” is defined as any natural person or any business, legal, or governmental entity or association.
- (7) Concerning. The term “concerning” means referring to, describing, evidencing, or constituting.
- (8) State the Basis. When an interrogatory calls upon a party to “state the basis” of or for a particular claim, assertion, allegation, or contention, the party shall
- (A) identify each and every document (and, where pertinent, the section, article, or subsection thereof), which forms any part of the source of the party’s information regarding the alleged facts or legal conclusions referred to by the interrogatory;
 - (B) identify each and every communication which forms any part of the source of the party’s information regarding the alleged facts or legal conclusions referred to by the interrogatory;
 - (C) state separately the acts or omissions to act on the part of any person (identifying the acts or omissions to act by stating their nature, time, and place and identifying the persons involved) which form any part of the party’s information regarding the alleged facts or legal conclusions referred to in the interrogatory; and
 - (D) state separately any other fact which forms the basis of the party’s information regarding the alleged facts or conclusions referred to in the interrogatory.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992.

RULE 26.6 COURT FILINGS AND COSTS

- (a) Nonfiling of Discovery Materials. Discovery materials (that is, automatic or voluntary disclosure materials, depositions, deposition notices, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admissions, answers and responses to discovery requests, and any other requests for or products of the discovery process) shall not be filed unless so ordered by the court or for use in the proceeding. The party taking a deposition or obtaining any material through discovery is responsible for its preservation and delivery to the court if needed or so ordered. If for any reason a party or concerned citizen believes that any of the named documents should be filed, an ex parte request may be made that such document be filed, stating the reasons for the request. The court may also order filing sua sponte. If relief is sought under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) or 37, copies of the relevant portions of disputed documents shall be filed with the court contemporaneously with any motion. If the moving party under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56 or the opponent relies on discovery documents, copies of the pertinent parts thereof shall be filed with the motion or opposition.
- (b) Copying Expense for Discovery Materials.
- (1) Inspection of Documents. Except as otherwise provided in an order entered pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c), all parties to an action shall be entitled to inspect documents produced by another party pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d) or 34 at the location where they are produced.
- (2) Copies of Documents. Except as otherwise provided in an order entered pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c), upon request of any party, and upon that party's agreement to pay the copying costs at the time of delivery, a party who produces documents pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d) or 34 shall provide copies of all or any specified part of the documents. No party shall be entitled to obtain copies of documents produced by another party pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d) or 34 without paying the costs thereof.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 30.1 PLACE FOR TAKING DEPOSITIONS

Unless the court orders otherwise,

- (a) Boston is deemed a convenient place for taking of a deposition of any person who resides, is employed, or transacts business in person in Suffolk, Bristol, Essex, Middlesex, Norfolk or Plymouth Counties;
- (b) Springfield is deemed a convenient place for taking the deposition of any person who resides, is employed, or transacts business in person in Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden or Hampshire Counties; and
- (c) Worcester is deemed a convenient place for taking the deposition of any person who resides, is employed, or transacts business in person in Worcester County.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective March 6, 2007.

RULE 30.2 OPENING OF DEPOSITIONS

- (a) Generally. If filed, unless the court directs otherwise, depositions taken pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 in a pending action shall be opened by the clerk and made available for inspection and copying on request of any party or counsel for any party to the proceeding.
- (b) Depositions to Perpetuate Testimony. Depositions before action or pending appeal taken pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 27 shall be opened by the clerk and made available for inspection and copying on request of any person served with notice pursuant to subsection (a)(2) of that rule, or by counsel for such person.

Effective September 1, 1990.

RULE 33.1 INTERROGATORIES

(a) Form of Response.

- (1) Answers and objections in response to interrogatories, served pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33 shall be made in the order of the interrogatories propounded.
- (2) Each answer, statement, or objection shall be preceded by the interrogatory to which it responds.
- (3) Each objection and the grounds therefor shall be stated separately.

(b) Reference to Records. Whenever a party answers any interrogatory by reference to records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained, as permitted in Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(c):

- (1) the specification of documents to be produced shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and identify the records and to ascertain the answer as readily as could the party from whom discovery is sought;
- (2) the producing party shall make available any computerized information or summaries thereof that it either has, or can adduce by a relatively simple procedure, unless these materials are privileged or otherwise immune from discovery;
- (3) the producing party shall provide any relevant compilations, abstracts, or summaries in its custody or readily obtainable by it, unless these materials are privileged or otherwise immune from discovery; and
- (4) the documents shall be made available for inspection and copying within 14 days after service of the answers to interrogatories or at a date agreed upon by the parties.

(c) Objections to Interrogatories.

- (1) When an objection is made to any interrogatory, or subpart thereof, it shall state with specificity all grounds upon which the objecting party relies. Any ground not stated in an objection within the time provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any extensions thereof, shall be deemed waived.
- (2) No part of an interrogatory shall be left unanswered merely because an objection is interposed to another part of the interrogatory.

(d) Answers to Interrogatories Following Objections. Answers to interrogatories with respect to which objections were served and which are subsequently required to be answered shall be served within 14 days after it is determined that they should be answered, unless the court directs otherwise.

- (e) Claims of Privilege. When a claim of privilege is asserted in objection to any interrogatory, or any subpart thereof, and an answer is not provided on the basis of that assertion, the attorney asserting the privilege shall identify in the objection the nature of the privilege that is being claimed. If the privilege is being asserted in connection with a claim or defense governed by state law, the attorney asserting the privilege shall indicate the particular privilege rule that is being invoked.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 34.1 DOCUMENT PRODUCTION

(a) Form of Response.

- (1) Answers and objections in response to requests for document production, served pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 shall be made in the order of the requests propounded.
- (2) Each answer, statement, or objection shall be preceded by the request to which it responds.
- (3) Each objection and the grounds therefor shall be stated separately.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) Objections to Document Request.

- (1) When an objection is made to any document request, or subpart thereof, it shall state with specificity all grounds upon which the objecting party relies. Any ground not stated in an objection within the time provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any extensions thereof, shall be deemed waived.
- (2) No part of a document request shall be left unanswered merely because an objection is interposed to another part of the document request.

(d) Answers to Document Request Following Objections. Answers to a document request with respect to which objections were served and which are subsequently required to be answered shall be served within 14 days after it is determined that they should be answered, unless the court directs otherwise.

(e) Claims of Privilege. When a claim of privilege is asserted in objection to any document request, or any subpart thereof, and any document is not provided on the basis of that assertion, the attorney asserting the privilege shall identify in the objection the nature of the privilege that is being claimed with respect to each such document. If the privilege is being asserted in connection with a claim or defense governed by state law, the attorney asserting the privilege shall indicate the particular privilege rule that is being invoked.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 35.1 DISCLOSURE OF MEDICAL INFORMATION IN PERSONAL INJURY CASES

- (a) Disclosure by Claimants. Within 14 days after an issue is joined by a responsive pleading, a claimant (whether a plaintiff, third-party plaintiff, cross-claimant, or counter-claimant) who asserts a claim for personal injuries shall serve a defendant (whether a direct defendant, third-party defendant, cross-claim defendant, or counterclaim defendant) with
- (1) an itemization of all medical expenses incurred before the date of service of the pleading containing the claim for which recovery is sought. If the claimant anticipates that recovery will be sought for future medical expenses, the itemization shall so state, but need not set forth an amount for the anticipated future medical expenses;
 - (2) a statement that either:
 - (A) identifies a reasonably convenient location and date, within no more than 14 days, at which the defendant may inspect and copy, at the defendant's expense, all non-privileged medical records pertaining to the diagnosis, care, or treatment of injuries for which recovery is sought; or
 - (B) identifies all health-care providers from which the claimant has received diagnosis, care, or treatment of injuries for which recovery is sought together with executed releases directed at each provider authorizing disclosure to the defendant or its counsel of all non-privileged medical records in the provider's possession.
- (b) Assertion of Privilege. Insofar as medical records are not produced in accordance with subsection (a)(2) on the ground of privilege, the claimant shall identify the privileged documents and state the privilege pursuant to which they are withheld.
- (c) Removed and Transferred Actions. In all actions removed to this court from a state court or transferred to this court from another federal court, claimants seeking recovery for personal injuries shall provide the information and materials described in subsection (a) within 21 days after the date of removal or transfer.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective December 1, 2009.

RULE 36.1 ADMISSIONS

(a) Requests for Admission--Form of Response.

- (1) Statements and objections in response to requests for admission served pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 36 shall be made in the order of the requests for admission propounded.
- (2) Each answer, statement, or objection shall be preceded by the request for admission to which it responds.
- (3) Each objection and the grounds therefor shall be stated separately.

(b) Statements in Response to Requests for Admission Following Objections. When there is objection to a request for admission and it is subsequently determined that the request is proper, the matter, the admission of which is requested, shall be deemed admitted unless within 14 days after such determination such party to whom the request was directed serves a statement denying the matter or setting forth the reasons why that party cannot admit or deny the matter, as provided in Fed. R. Civ. P. 36.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective January 2, 1995; December 1, 2009.

RULE 37.1 DISCOVERY DISPUTES

- (a) Obligation to Confer. Before filing any discovery motion, including any motion for sanctions or for a protective order, counsel for each of the parties shall confer in good faith to narrow the areas of disagreement to the greatest possible extent. It shall be the responsibility of counsel for the moving party to arrange for the conference. Conferences may be conducted over the telephone. Failure of opposing counsel to respond to a request for a discovery conference within 7 days of the request shall be grounds for sanctions, which may include automatic allowance of the motion.
- (b) Motions. If (1) opposing counsel has failed to respond to a request for a discovery conference within the 7 day period set forth in subsection (a), (2) opposing counsel has failed to attend a discovery conference within 14 calendar days of the request, or (3) disputed issues are not resolved at the discovery conference, a dissatisfied party may file a motion and supporting memorandum. The motion shall include a certificate in the margin of the last page that the provisions of this rule have been complied with. The memorandum shall state with particularity the following:
- (1) If a discovery conference was not held, the reasons why it was not;
 - (2) If a discovery conference was held, the time, date, location and duration of the conference; who was present for each party; the matters on which the parties reached agreement; and the issues remaining to be decided by the court;
 - (3) The nature of the case and the facts relevant to the discovery matters to be decided;
 - (4) Each interrogatory, deposition question, request for production, request for admission or other discovery matter raising an issue to be decided by the court, and the response thereto; and
 - (5) A statement of the moving party's position as to each contested issue, with supporting legal authority, which statement shall be set forth separately immediately following each contested item.
- (c) The opposing party may respond to the memorandum within 14 calendar days after service thereof. The response, if any, shall conform to the requirements of subsection (b)(5) of this rule.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992.

RULE 40.1 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) Civil Cases.

- (1) Categories of Cases. All civil cases shall be divided into the following three categories for purposes of assignment, based upon the numbered “Nature of the Suit” listed in the civil cover sheet used by the clerk in initiating the civil docket:

- I 410, 441, 470, 535, 830, 891, 893, 895, R.23, regardless of nature of suit.
- II 110, 130, 140, 160, 190, 196, 230, 240, 290, 320, 362, 370, 371, 380, 430, 440, 442, 443, 445, 446, 448, 710, 720, 740, 790, 820, 840, 850
- III 120, 150, 151, 152, 153, 195, 210, 220, 245, 310, 315, 330, 340, 345, 350, 355, 360, 365, 367, 368, 375, 385, 400, 422, 423, 450, 460, 462, 463, 465, 480, 490, 510, 530, 540, 550, 555, 560, 625, 690, 751, 791, 810, 861-865, 890, 896, 899, 950

A copy of the local civil category sheet form referred to is attached as an appendix to this rule.

- (2) Designation of Nature of Suit. The party filing the initial pleading shall complete a civil cover sheet, Form JS 44, or any successor forms, and file it with the initial pleading. If the clerk should determine that the designation of Nature of Suit is in error, the clerk shall correctly classify the suit and notify the party filing the initial pleading. A designation shall not thereafter be changed except by order of the chief judge or the district judge to whom the case is assigned.
- (3) Assignment. The clerk shall place a case in one of the three categories described in subsection (a)(1) and, unless otherwise ordered by the court, assign it by lot among the district judges in active service at their respective duty stations in accordance with this rule in such manner that each such district judge shall be assigned as nearly as possible the same number of cases in each category. A senior judge may limit the category of case and nature of suit assigned to that judge and, within the categories of cases or suits that senior judge will accept, assignment shall be by lot in accordance with this rule.

(b) Criminal Cases.

- (1) Categories of Cases. All criminal cases shall be divided into the following three categories:

- I - Felony cases expected to require a combined total of 15 days or more for pretrial hearings and trial before a district judge.
- II - All other felony cases.

- III - All misdemeanor and petty offense cases where a district judge has been requested; all cases transferred under Fed. R. Crim. P. 20 ; cases involving waivers of indictment; and all matters involving alleged violations of conditions of release by persons transferred to this district for supervision.
- (2) Designation of Category. The attorney for the United States shall identify the appropriate category on Form JS 45, as modified for the District of Massachusetts, or any successor form, and submit the form contemporaneously with the document that initiates the case. If the clerk should determine that the designation of category is in error, the clerk shall correctly classify the case and notify the attorney for the United States. The designation shall not thereafter be changed except by order of the chief judge or the district judge to whom the case is assigned.
- (3) Assignment. The clerk shall place a case in one of the three categories described in subsection (b)(1) and, unless otherwise ordered by the court, assign it by lot among the district judges in active service at their respective active duty stations within the divisions of the court in accordance with this rule in such manner that each district judge shall be assigned as nearly as possible the same number of cases in each category. A senior judge may limit the category of cases or types of alleged criminal offenses assigned to that judge and within the categories of cases or offenses that senior judge will accept, assignment shall be in accordance with this rule.
- (c) Designation of Divisions. The District of Massachusetts constitutes one judicial district comprising three divisions.
- (1) Eastern Division. The Eastern Division of the District of Massachusetts comprises the counties of Barnstable, Bristol, Dukes, Essex, Middlesex, Nantucket, Norfolk, Plymouth, and Suffolk. Cases assigned to the Eastern Division and all pleadings and documents therein shall be filed in the clerk's office in Boston.
- (2) Central Division. The Central Division of the District of Massachusetts is Worcester County. Cases assigned to the Central Division and all pleadings and documents therein shall be filed in the clerk's office in Worcester.
- (3) Western Division. The Western Division of the District of Massachusetts comprises the counties of Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden and Hampshire. Cases shall be assigned to the Western Division and all pleadings and documents therein shall be filed in the clerk's office in Springfield.
- (d) Assignment of Civil Cases.
- (1) Civil cases shall be assigned to the respective divisions if:
- (A) All of the parties reside in that division.

- (B) All of the parties reside in the District of Massachusetts and the majority of the plaintiff(s) reside(s) in that division.
 - (C) The only parties residing in the District of Massachusetts reside in that division; or
 - (D) Any of the parties are the United States, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or any governmental agency of either the United States or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and a majority of all other parties resident in the District of Massachusetts reside in that division.
 - (E) Except as otherwise ordered by the court, cases not governed by subsection (d)(1) may be filed, subject to reassignment and transfer, in the division chosen by the plaintiff.
- (e) Assignment of Criminal Cases. Criminal cases shall be assigned to that division in which the most significant criminal conduct related to the alleged violations occurred within the District of Massachusetts. All documents in each criminal case shall be filed in the clerk's office administering cases for the division to which that case is assigned.
- (f) Transfer between Divisions. Any case may be transferred from one division to another division on motion of any party for good cause shown or sua sponte for good cause by the district judge to whom the case is assigned.
- (g) Related Civil Cases.
- (1) For purposes of this rule, a civil case is related to one previously filed in this court if some or all of the parties are the same and if one or more of the following similarities exist also: the cases involve the same or similar claims or defenses; or the cases involve the same property, transaction or event; or the cases involve insurance coverage for the same property, transaction or event; or the cases involve substantially the same questions of fact and law. In addition, two cases, one criminal and one civil, are related if the civil case involves forfeiture of property from a transaction or event which is the subject of a previously filed criminal case, or the civil case seeks enforcement of a restitution order or fine imposed in a previously filed criminal case. This rule shall not apply if more than two years have elapsed since the closing of the previous action.
 - (2) If the party filing the initial pleading believes that the case is related to a case already assigned, whether or not the case is then pending, that party shall notify the clerk by notation on the local civil category sheet indicating the title and number of each such earlier case.

- (3) The clerk shall assign related cases to the same district judge without regard to the number of other cases in that category previously assigned to that judge. Related cases shall be counted as cases assigned, except as the chief judge may otherwise direct.
 - (4) The assignment of cases as related by the clerk shall be subject to correction only by the district judge to whom they have been assigned, who shall return cases erroneously assigned on that basis to the clerk for reassignment.
 - (5) The treatment of a case as not related to another case shall be subject to correction only by the joint decision of the district judge to whom it has been assigned and the district judge to whom it should be assigned, if related to another case. The judges may then transfer the case pursuant to subsection (i) of this rule, and shall notify the clerk of the reason for the transfer.
- (h) Proceedings after Assignment. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, all proceedings in a case after its assignment shall be conducted before the district judge to whom it has been assigned, except as otherwise provided in these rules. This subsection does not preclude reassignment of cases by the court or the clerk, at the direction of the court, without prior notice to the parties.
- (i) Reassignment and Transfer of Cases.
- (1) Generally. In the interest of justice or to further the efficient performance of the business of the court, a district judge may return a case to the clerk for reassignment, whether or not the case is related to any other case, with the approval of the chief judge, or, with respect to civil cases only, may transfer the case to another district judge, if the other judge consents to the transfer.
 - (2) Transfers of Criminal Cases. A district judge may transfer a criminal case to another district judge, with the consent of (1) the other judge, (2) the chief judge, and (3) the parties in the transferred case, in order to permit a defendant charged in multiple criminal cases to plead guilty, to stand trial, to be sentenced, or otherwise to address in a single proceeding multiple criminal cases in which that defendant has been charged.
- (j) Motion for Consolidation of Cases. A motion for consolidation of two or more cases shall be made in the case first filed in this court.
- (k) Proceedings after Appeal.

- (1) When an appellate court remands a case to this court for a new trial, the case shall be reassigned to a district judge other than the judge before whom the first trial was held.
 - (2) In all other cases in which the mandate of the appellate court requires further proceedings in this court, such proceedings shall not be conducted before the district judge before whom the prior proceedings were conducted unless the terms of the remand require that further proceedings be conducted before the original judge or unless the judge determines that there will result a substantial saving in the time of the whole court and that there is no reason why, in the interest of justice, further proceedings should be conducted before another judge. If the judge before whom the prior proceedings were conducted does not retain the case for further proceedings, that judge shall return it to the clerk for reassignment.
- (l) Drawing of Civil Cases to Magistrate Judges. The court may adopt policies and procedures permitting the assignment of certain civil cases to magistrate judges rather than to district judges in accordance with this rule. Any such policies and procedures shall include a requirement that the parties consent to the assignment, consistent with the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and other federal law.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective January 1, 2001; August 2, 2011; January 3, 2012; September 6, 2016.

RULE 40.2 CONFLICT OF COURT APPEARANCES

- (a) Order of Preference and Notice to Deputy Clerks. In situations where counsel, including Assistant United States Attorneys, have conflicting court appearances among cases pending before different judicial officers of this court, the following order of preference shall apply, except as otherwise provided by law:
- (1) Trials shall take precedence over all other hearings, and jury trials shall take precedence over nonjury trials.
 - (2) Criminal cases shall take precedence over civil cases.
 - (3) Criminal cases involving defendants who are in custody pending trial in the particular case shall take precedence over other criminal cases.
 - (4) Among civil cases or among criminal cases not involving defendants in custody, the case having the earliest docket number shall take precedence over the others.

When such conflicts appear, the counsel involved shall notify the deputy clerk assigned to each judicial officer concerned, in writing, not later than 7 days after the receipt of the notice or calendar giving rise to such conflict. The notice shall contain the names and docket number of each case, the time of the scheduled hearings in each case, the purpose thereof, and advise which case has precedence and the reason therefor. Upon receipt of such notice and a determination that a conflict in fact exists, the case or cases not having precedence shall be rescheduled.

- (b) Substitution of Counsel. Counsel, in lieu of giving a notice of conflict, may elect to have a colleague, including another Assistant United States Attorney, handle the matter for the counsel involved. This shall not apply to any appointed defense counsel in the trial of criminal cases, unless the judicial officer orders otherwise.
- (c) Primacy of Speedy Trial Plan. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this rule and the provisions of the Speedy Trial Plan for the District of Massachusetts, the Speedy Trial Plan shall control.
- (d) Scheduling Policy Regarding Superior Court Cases. When counsel have engagement conflicts with respect to cases pending in the Massachusetts Superior Court and this court, the following scheduling policy shall apply:
- (1) Trials shall take precedence over all other hearings.
 - (2) Jury trials shall take precedence over nonjury trials.

- (3) Criminal cases shall take precedence over civil cases.
- (4) Criminal cases involving defendants who are in custody pending trial shall take precedence over other criminal cases.
- (5) Among civil cases, or among criminal cases not involving defendants in custody, the case having the earliest docket number shall take precedence over the others, except that a trial setting involving numerous parties and counsel will ordinarily take precedence over other trials.

Counsel shall notify the presiding Superior Court Justice and the judicial officer of the scheduling conflict, in writing, not later than 7 days after the receipt of the scheduling order giving rise to the conflict. Counsel's notification shall include (1) the names and docket numbers of each case, (2) the date and time of the scheduled proceedings in each case, and (3) a brief statement as to which case has precedence under this policy. The case or cases not having precedence shall be rescheduled, unless the presiding Superior Court Justice and judicial officer agree otherwise.

- (a) Generally. A motion for the continuance of a trial, evidentiary hearing, or any other proceeding, will be granted only for good cause.
- (b) Requirements for Motion. Motions to continue discovery and pretrial conferences will not be entertained unless the date and time of the pretrial conference are set out in the motion as well as a statement of how many other requests, if any, for continuances have been sought and granted.
- (c) Substantiation of Illness. Illness of parties and material witnesses must be substantiated by a current medical certificate.

RULE 40.4 EMERGENCIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

- (a) Matters and Proceedings Heard by Miscellaneous Business Docket (MBD) Judge. There will be designated an MBD judge to hear and determine:
- (1) Emergency matters requiring immediate action in cases already assigned to any district judge, if the judge to whom a case had been assigned is unavailable or otherwise unable to hear the matter.
 - (2) Special proceedings, the nature of which precludes their assignment in the ordinary course (for example, motions relating to grand jury investigations, discovery in cases pending in other districts, enforcement of administrative subpoenas); and
 - (3) Any other proceedings, including an admission to the bar and a naturalization, which are not part of or related to a case that should be assigned in the ordinary course.
- (b) Disposition of "Emergency" Matters. The MBD judge will dispose of matters pursuant to subsection (a)(1), only to the extent necessary to meet the emergency. So far as practicable, consistent with justice and the efficient performance of the business of the court, the matter will be continued for disposition by the district judge to whom the case is assigned.
- (c) Subsequent "Emergency" Proceedings. If the MBD judge before whom the proceeding is brought concludes that, for lack of an emergency or otherwise, the proceeding should not be determined under this rule, the party who brought the proceeding shall not thereafter present the same matter to any other judge sitting as MBD judge, unless relevant circumstances change in the interim, in which case the party shall bring to the attention of such other judge the prior proceeding and the changed circumstances which warrant resubmission of the matter under this rule.
- (d) Special and Other Proceedings. Proceedings pursuant to subsections (a)(2) and (3) shall continue before the district judge first handling the matter until conclusion.

Effective September 1, 1990.

RULE 41.1 DISMISSAL FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

(a) By the Clerk.

- (1) Whenever in any civil action the clerk shall ascertain that no proceeding has been docketed therein for a period of one year, the clerk shall then serve notice to all persons who have entered an appearance in such a case that, subject to the provisions of subsection (a)(3), the case will be dismissed without further notice 28 days after the sending of the notice.
- (2) If no response is received within the 28-day period, without order of the court the clerk shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (a)(3), enter an order of dismissal for all cases on the list. It shall not be necessary for the clerk to serve additional notice of the dismissal to any counsel or party.
- (3) A case shall not be dismissed for lack of prosecution if within 28 days of the serving of notice an explanation for the lack of proceedings is filed and the judicial officer to whom the case is assigned orders that it not be dismissed.

(b) By the Court.

- (1) Additionally, each judicial officer may from time to time give notice of not less than 21 days of hearing on a dismissal calendar for actions or proceedings assigned to that judicial officer that appear not to have been diligently prosecuted. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, each party shall, not less than 14 days prior to the noticed hearing date, serve and file a certificate describing the status of the action or proceeding and showing that good cause exists for the court to retain the case on the docket. Nothing in this rule precludes the filing of a motion for dismissal under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).
 - (2) Failure on the part of the plaintiff to file the required statement or to appear at the scheduled hearing shall be grounds for the dismissal of the action.
- (c) The dismissal of a case pursuant to this rule shall not operate as an adjudication on the merits unless the court on motion of a party directs otherwise.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective December 1, 2009.

RULE 43.1 TRIAL

(a) Time Limits for Evidentiary Hearing.

- (1) Absent agreement of the parties as to the time limits for the trial acceptable to the judicial officer, the judicial officer may order a presumptive limit of a specified number of hours. This time shall be allocated equally between opposing parties, or groups of aligned parties, unless otherwise ordered for good cause.
- (2) A request for added time will be allowed only for good cause. In determining whether to grant a motion for an increased allotment of time, the court will take into account:
 - (A) whether or not the moving party has
 - (i) used the time since the commencement of trial in a reasonable and proper way, and
 - (ii) complied with all orders regulating the trial;
 - (B) the moving party's explanation as to the way in which the requested added time would be used and why it is essential to assure a fair trial; and
 - (C) any other relevant and material facts the moving party may wish to present in support of the motion.

The court will be receptive to motions for reducing or increasing the allotted time to assure that the distribution is fair among the parties and adequate for developing the evidence.

(b) Evidence at the Evidentiary Hearing.

- (1) Each party shall give advance notice to the judicial officer and the other parties, before jury selection, of the identity of all witnesses whose testimony it may offer during trial, whether by affidavit, deposition, or oral testimony.
- (2) Not later than 7 days before it seeks to use the testimony of any witness, or on shorter notice for good cause shown, a party shall advise the judicial officer and all other parties of its intent to use the testimony of the witness on a specified day.

- (3) Except for good cause shown, no party shall be allowed to:
 - (A) use the testimony of a witness other than the witnesses already listed on the filing with the court before trial commences; or

- (B) introduce documentary evidence, during direct examination, other than those exhibits already listed with the judicial officer and furnished to the other parties before trial commences.

Adopted effective October 1, 1992; amended effective December 1, 2009.

RULE 48.1 [DELETED]

Deleted effective January 2, 1995.

RULE 54.3 [DELETED]

RULE 56.1 MOTIONS FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Motions for summary judgment shall include a concise statement of the material facts of record as to which the moving party contends there is no genuine issue to be tried, with page references to affidavits, depositions and other documentation. Failure to include such a statement constitutes grounds for denial of the motion. Opposition to motions for summary judgment must be filed, unless the court orders otherwise, within 21 days after the motion is served. A party opposing the motion shall include a concise statement of the material facts of record as to which it is contended that there exists a genuine issue to be tried, with page references to affidavits, depositions and other documentation. Copies of all referenced documentation shall be filed as exhibits to the motion or opposition. Material facts of record set forth in the statement required to be served by the moving party will be deemed for purposes of the motion to be admitted by opposing parties unless controverted by the statement required to be served by opposing parties. Unless the court orders otherwise, the moving party may file a reply within 14 days after the response is served.

Effective September 1, 1990, amended effective December 1, 2009.

RULE 58.2 SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENTS

 - (2) On the filing of a satisfaction of judgment executed by the judgment creditor, or the creditor's legal representative or assignees with evidence of their authority, or the creditor's attorney in the proceeding in which judgment has been entered; or
 - (3) On the filing of a satisfaction of judgment executed by the United States Attorney, if the judgment is in favor of the United States; or
 - (4) On registration of a certified copy of a satisfaction of judgment entered in another district court.
- (b) Payment of Money into Court. When satisfaction is made by payment of money into court, that fact shall be noted in the entry of satisfaction.

RULE 62.2 STAY BY BOND OR OTHER SECURITY

 - (2) The guaranty of a company or corporation holding a certificate of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 9305; or
 - (3) The guaranty of two individual residents of this district, each of whom owns unencumbered real or personal property within the district worth the amount of the bond, in excess of legal obligations and exemptions.
- (d) Deposits of cash or obligations of the United States shall be accompanied by a written statement, duly acknowledged, that the signer is owner thereof, that the same is subject to the conditions of the bond, and that the clerk may collect or sell the obligations and apply the proceeds, or the cash deposited, in case of default as provided in the bond. Upon satisfaction of the conditions of the bond, the monies or obligations shall be returned to the owner on the order of a magistrate or district judge.
- (e) Individual Sureties. An individual acting as surety pursuant to subsection (c)(3) shall file an affidavit:
 - (1) Giving his or her name, occupation, and residential and business address;
 - (2) Showing that he or she is qualified to act as surety; and

- (h) Modification of Bond. The amount or terms of a bond or similar undertaking may be changed at any time as justice requires, by order of the court on its own motion or on motion of a party.
- (i) Further Security. The court may order a party to furnish further or different security, or require personal sureties to furnish further justification.

Effective September 1, 1990; amended effective May 3, 2016.

RULE 67.2 DEPOSIT IN COURT

The following procedures apply to deposits into the registry of the court in civil actions.

(a) Receipt of Funds.

- (2) All money ordered to be paid to the court or received by its officers in any case pending or adjudicated shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States in the name and to the credit of this court pursuant to 28 U.S. C. § 2041 through depositories designated by the Treasury to accept such deposit on its behalf.
- (3) The party making the deposit or transferring funds to the court's registry shall serve the order permitting the deposit or transfer on the clerk.

(b) Investment of Registry Funds.

- (1) Funds on deposit with the court will be placed in interest-bearing instruments in the Court Registry Investment System (CRIS) administered by the Administrative Office the United States Courts, which is the only investment mechanism authorized.
- (2) Under CRIS, monies deposited in each case under L.R. 67.2(a) shall be "pooled" together with those on deposit with the Treasury to the credit of other courts in CRIS and used to purchase Government Account Series securities through the Bureau of Public Debt, which will be held at Treasury, in an account in the name and to the credit of the Direct of Administrative Office of the United States Courts, hereby designated custodian for the CRIS.
- (3) An account for each case will be established in CRIS titled in the name of the case giving rise to the investment in the fund. Income generated from fund investments will be distributed to each case based on the ratio each account's principal and earnings has to the aggregate principal and income total in the fund. Reports showing the interest earned and the principal amounts contributed in each case will be prepared and distributed to each court participating in CRIS and made available to litigants and/or their counsel.

(c) Deductions of Fees.

- (1) The custodian is authorized and directed by this rule to deduct the registry fee for maintaining accounts in CRIS and the investment service fee for the management of investments. The proper registry fee is to be determined on the basis of the rates published by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States as approved by the Judicial Conference. The investment services fee is assessed from interest earning according to the court's Miscellaneous Fee Schedule.

- (2) If registry fees were assessed against the case under the old 45-day requirement prior to deposit in CRIS, no additional registry fee will be assessed.

Prior to distribution, any party claiming an interest in the funds may move the court for a stay of the disbursement order pending appeal.

(b) Payees. If more than one check is to be issued on a single order, the portion due to each payee must be set out separately. In all cases, counsel must furnish the clerk with the address and social security number or taxpayer identification number of each recipient, and this number shall be included in the court order for release of funds.

(c) Disbursement of Monies other than Registry Funds. All disbursements to individuals made by the clerk of monies received in his or her official capacity, other than registry funds, when made by check of the clerk on the Treasury of the United States, shall be made to the payee as the name shall appear in the disbursement voucher certified by the clerk or his or her designated certifying officer. The name of the payee in the disbursement voucher shall conform to the name appearing in the clerk's records of the case to which the disbursement relates. The clerk shall endeavor to note of record the given name of all individuals making deposits of monies with the clerk. In those cases where the given name appears of record, disbursement vouchers and checks thereunder shall show the full given name, additional initials, if any, and the surname of the payee.

(d) Escrow Agents. In lieu of these provisions, an interested party may apply to the court for appointment of escrow agents. Such agents may deposit funds in a financial institution in an interest-bearing account and provide for the disposition of interest so earned, as approved by the court.

RULE 83.6.5 DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

- (a) Procedure Generally. The following procedures shall be employed in matters of alleged attorney misconduct.
- (b) Screening and Referral. All complaints of alleged attorney misconduct shall be screened in the first instance by the judicial officer who presided over the case or matter, if any, in which the misconduct occurred. If that judicial officer is unavailable, or if the proper judicial officer cannot be readily determined, the clerk shall randomly assign the complaint to a district judge other than the presiding judge for screening. Any judicial officer may refer any matter of potential attorney misconduct to the presiding judge, as set forth below, for review and possible further action. If the allegations of attorney misconduct are reasonably plausible and potentially serious, the matter should be referred to the presiding judge.
- (c) Presiding Judge.
- (1) Generally. After screening and referral, allegations of attorney misconduct shall be handled by the presiding judge.
 - (2) Assignment of Presiding Judge. The presiding judge shall not be the judicial officer who referred the matter for review or a judicial officer assigned to the case or matter, if any, in which the matter arose. For cases arising in the Eastern Division, the Miscellaneous Business Docket Judge shall be the presiding judge. For cases arising in the Central Division, the presiding judge shall be the judge assigned to the Western Division. For cases arising in the Western Division, the presiding judge shall be the judge assigned to the Central Division. If the presiding judge is disqualified under this rule, or recuses himself or herself, the matter will be referred to the chief judge or, if he or she is disqualified, to the next active district judge in order of seniority. Once a matter has been assigned to a particular judge as the presiding judge, that judge shall remain the presiding judge for that matter unless it is reassigned under L.R. 40.1(I).
- (d) Initial Review and Action by Presiding Judge. The presiding judge shall conduct an initial de novo review of the matter and shall take one or more of the following actions.
- (1) No Action. The presiding judge may direct that no further action be taken, if he or she concludes that the allegations do not describe a disciplinary violation or otherwise are plainly without merit.
 - (2) Request for Explanation. The presiding judge may provide written notice to the attorney specifying the alleged misconduct and affording the attorney an opportunity to explain, either on the record or in writing, why he or she believes that formal disciplinary proceedings should not be commenced. If the presiding judge is satisfied with the explanation, he or she may direct that no further action be taken, or take such other steps consistent with these rules as may be appropriate.

- (3) Resolution by Consent. The presiding judge may take any action, or enter any order, consistent with these rules to permit a resolution of any disciplinary matter by settlement or consent.
- (4) Review by Special Counsel. The presiding judge may appoint special counsel to conduct an investigation, to make a report to the court, and to perform any other duty set forth in the order of appointment. If the matter proceeds to a formal disciplinary proceeding, the presiding judge may direct that special counsel may continue to act and may present evidence, examine witnesses, and otherwise participate in the proceeding.
- (5) Temporary Suspension. The presiding judge may suspend the attorney on a temporary basis pursuant to L.R. 83.6.6.
- (6) Commencement of Formal Proceedings. The presiding judge may initiate formal proceedings against the attorney, as set forth below.
- (7) Other Action. The presiding judge may take any other action that is authorized by law, not inconsistent with these rules, and reasonably necessary to the exercise of his or her authority under these rules.

(e) Referrals to Other Authorities.

- (1) State Bar Disciplinary Authorities. The presiding judge may refer the matter to a state bar disciplinary authority with a request that the authority report its actions to the court.
- (2) Federal Authorities. In the case of an attorney for the United States or any department of agency of the United States, the presiding judge may refer the matter to the Department of Justice Office of Professional Responsibility, or to any other federal office or agency with supervisory or disciplinary authority over the attorney, with a request that the office or agency report its actions to the court.
- (3) Effect of Referral. The presiding judge may continue to conduct any review, investigation, or proceeding, and impose any discipline, notwithstanding the referral of a matter to an outside authority. In the alternative, the presiding judge may, in the interests of justice, stay or suspend any such review, investigation, or proceeding pending resolution of same or a related matter by another authority.

- (4) Notification to Clerk. The presiding judge shall notify the clerk of any referral to an outside authority, who shall keep a record of all such referrals.
- (f) Notice and Opportunity to Be Heard. No discipline shall be imposed against an attorney pursuant to these rules without notice and an opportunity to be heard as to both the finding of misconduct and the form of the discipline.
- (g) Discovery. The presiding judge shall order such discovery as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that the proceeding is fair to all parties. The presiding judge may, in his or her discretion, order such additional discovery as may be appropriate under the circumstances.
- (h) Requirement of Cooperation. Any attorney who is the subject of an investigation or review, or a witness in such a matter, shall cooperate and shall reasonably and promptly respond to inquiries from the court and its agents; provided, however, that an attorney may make a valid assertion of his or her constitutional rights, any applicable privilege, or any other right provided by law. Any failure to cooperate under this rule may itself result in disciplinary action.
- (i) Formal Disciplinary Proceedings.
- (1) Show Cause Order. A formal disciplinary proceeding against an attorney shall commence by the issuance of a show-cause order by the presiding judge. The show-cause order shall direct the attorney to appear and show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against the attorney for reasons stated in the order.
- (2) Service of Notice. The order may be served upon the attorney by mailing a copy to him or her at the address provided by the attorney pursuant to these local rules or by any other means reasonably calculated to provide notice to the attorney.
- (3) Special Counsel. If special counsel has not already been appointed, the presiding judge may appoint such counsel to present evidence and examine witnesses at any hearing and otherwise to participate in the proceeding.
- (4) Written Response. The attorney shall file a written response to the show-cause order within 28 days after service. If the attorney requests a hearing to resolve any disputed issue of material fact raised in the response, or if the attorney does not dispute the misconduct but wishes to be heard on the issue of the appropriate form of discipline, the presiding judge shall set the matter for hearing.
- (5) Hearing. The presiding judge shall hold a hearing as necessary and appropriate to resolve any disputed issues of material fact, to determine whether any attorney misconduct occurred, and to determine the appropriate form of discipline. The respondent attorney may be represented by counsel and may, upon reasonable request, present evidence and cross-examine witnesses. The presiding judge shall make any factual findings on the record in open court or in a written order.

- (6) Standard of Proof. Any factual predicate must be proved according to the standard of proof applied in attorney discipline matters in the courts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
 - (7) Public Proceeding. Unless the presiding judge orders otherwise for good cause shown, any such hearing shall be open to the public.
 - (8) Findings. The presiding judge shall issue a written order setting forth his or her conclusions and the reasons therefor and the final disposition of the matter, including any discipline imposed on the attorney. Any order imposing attorney discipline shall be entered as a final judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 54.
- (j) Reference to Magistrate Judge. The presiding judge may refer an attorney disciplinary matter to a magistrate judge.
- (1) Disqualification. The designated magistrate judge shall not be the judicial officer who referred the matter for review or a judicial officer assigned to the case or matter, if any, in which the matter arose.
 - (2) Preliminary Stage. If the matter is at the preliminary or informal stage, the magistrate judge may review the matter, make a report and recommendation to the court, or perform any other duty specified in the order of referral.
 - (3) Formal Disciplinary Proceedings. If the matter has proceeded to formal disciplinary proceedings, the magistrate judge shall make a written report and recommendation to the presiding judge, including proposed factual findings.
 - (4) Objections and District Judge Review. Any objections to a report and recommendation, and any review by the presiding judge, shall proceed in accordance with the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).
- (k) Participation of Victims in Proceedings. The court shall give due regard to the victims or potential victims of any attorney misconduct in the conduct of any proceedings and the issuance of any disciplinary order. The court shall endeavor to provide notice of any hearing to such persons and permit them to be heard as appropriate. The court shall also consider whether an order of restitution is appropriate in any disciplinary order.
- (l) Appeal.

- (1) Generally. An appeal from a judgment or order entered under this rule may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and other applicable federal law.
- (2) Appeal by Court. An appeal may be taken on behalf of the court by the special counsel who handled the proceeding, or by special counsel appointed for that purpose, if the court, by a majority vote of the full court, so directs. Any district judge, bankruptcy judge, or magistrate judge may request that the full court consider taking an appeal in a particular matter. The court may delay entry of judgment or take such other steps as may be reasonably necessary to preserve the right of appeal while the matter is under consideration.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 83.6.6 TEMPORARY SUSPENSION

- (a) Temporary Suspension Generally. The presiding judge, in accordance with this rule, may enter a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction under Fed. R. Civ. P. 65 immediately suspending an attorney's right to practice law in this court or in the bankruptcy court of this district, pending the outcome of a disciplinary proceeding under these rules.
- (b) No Temporary Suspension by Complaining Judicial Officer. A complaint, referral, or report and recommendation seeking an order of temporary suspension shall be referred to the presiding judge in accordance with L.R. 83.6.5(c). An order of temporary suspension shall not be entered by a judicial officer who presided over the case or matter, if any, in which the alleged misconduct occurred.
- (c) Notice and Hearing. No order of temporary suspension may be made without notice to the attorney and an opportunity to be heard.
- (d) Standard for Temporary Suspension. The presiding judge shall consider the following factors when determining whether to issue an order of temporary suspension:
 - (1) whether a disciplinary complaint has a substantial likelihood of success on the merits and is likely to result in an order of suspension or disbarment;
 - (2) whether the attorney's continued practice of law in this court pending the outcome of any disciplinary proceedings presents a significant ongoing risk of harm to the public;
 - (3) whether the balance of equities, including a weighing of the ongoing risk of harm to the public against the harm to the attorney resulting from an immediate suspension, warrants suspension; and
 - (4) whether the public interest favors entry of the order.
- (e) Written Report by District Judge. If a district judge determines that an attorney should be the subject of an order of temporary suspension, the district judge shall issue an order to show cause why an attorney should not be immediately suspended from practice in the district court and a written report setting forth the basis of the judge's belief. The order to show cause and written report shall be served on the attorney with a date by which the attorney should respond. The matter shall be immediately referred to the presiding judge, who shall consider it on an expedited basis.
- (f) Report and Recommendation by Bankruptcy Judge or Magistrate Judge. If a bankruptcy judge or magistrate judge believes that an attorney should be the subject of an order of temporary suspension, the bankruptcy judge or magistrate judge shall issue an order to show cause why the attorney should not be immediately suspended from practice in the district court and a report and recommendation to the district court setting forth the facts warranting such relief. The order to show cause and report and recommendation shall be served on the attorney with a date by which the attorney should respond. The order to show cause and the report and recommendation shall be immediately referred to the presiding judge, who shall consider the matter on an expedited basis.

- (g) Modification of Suspension. After notice and hearing, and for good cause shown, the presiding judge may vacate or modify any order of temporary suspension issued under this rule.
- (h) Formal Disciplinary Proceedings. If a formal disciplinary proceeding has not yet been initiated under L.R. 83.6.5(g) at the time the order of temporary suspension is requested or issued, such a proceeding shall be initiated reasonably promptly thereafter.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 83.6.7 DISBARMENT BY CONSENT

- (a) Consent to Disbarment Generally. Any attorney admitted to practice before this court may consent to disbarment.
- (b) Procedure. In order to consent to disbarment, the attorney must deliver an affidavit to the court stating that:
- (1) the attorney wishes to consent to disbarment;
 - (2) the attorney's consent is freely and voluntarily given and not made under coercion or duress;
 - (3) the attorney is fully aware of the implications of consenting to disbarment; and
 - (4) the attorney is aware of the pending investigation or proceeding and that grounds exist for disciplinary action, the nature of which shall be specifically set forth.

The affidavit shall also identify all jurisdictions in which the attorney has been admitted to practice. Upon receipt of the required affidavit, the chief judge shall enter an order disbaring the attorney, and direct the clerk to send a copy of the order to all jurisdictions in which the disbarred attorney has been admitted to practice.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 83.6.8 DISCIPLINE AFTER CRIMINAL CONVICTION

(a) Effect of Criminal Conviction.

- (1) Summary Suspension. When an attorney who is a member of the bar of this district or who is permitted to practice in this court has been convicted of a serious crime, as defined in subsection (b) of this rule, the attorney shall be summarily suspended from practicing before this court.
- (2) Suspension Procedure. The court shall enter an order immediately suspending an attorney from practicing before this court upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment or other official court records reflecting a criminal conviction. A copy of such order shall immediately be served upon the attorney. The matter shall then be referred to the presiding judge in accordance with L.R. 83.6.5(c) for further review and action.
- (3) Setting Aside Suspension. Upon good cause shown, the presiding judge may set aside such order when it appears in the interest of justice to do so.
- (4) Subsequent Disciplinary Proceeding. In addition to suspending the attorney, the presiding judge shall commence a formal disciplinary proceeding against the attorney, provided, however, that the disciplinary proceeding so instituted shall not be brought to final hearing until all appeals from the conviction are concluded.

(b) Definition of “Serious Crime.” The term “serious crime” shall be defined for purposes of this rule as follows.

- (1) Types of Crime. “Serious crime” shall include:
 - (A) any felony or other crime punishable by a term of imprisonment of more than one year;
 - (B) any crime involving obstruction of justice, interference with the administration of justice, witness intimidation, perjury, or suborning perjury;
 - (C) any crime involving false statements, fraud, false swearing, false pretenses, misrepresentation, or deceit;
 - (D) any crime involving bribery, extortion, or unlawful payments to a government official;
 - (E) any crime involving misappropriation of property or embezzlement;

- (F) any crime involving willful failure to file tax returns or filing false tax returns; and
 - (G) any attempt, conspiracy, or solicitation of another to commit such crimes.
- (2) Jurisdictions. A conviction for a “serious crime” shall qualify if it occurred in any court of the United States, any state, the District of Columbia, or any territory, commonwealth, or possession of the United States.
- (c) Definition of “Convicted.” The term “convicted” shall be defined for purposes of this rule to include any disposition of a criminal matter by a finding of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, whether or not that disposition has been appealed or is otherwise under court review.
- (d) Effect of Reversal of Conviction. An attorney who was suspended under the provisions of this rule will be reinstated immediately upon the filing of a certificate demonstrating that the conviction has been reversed. The reinstatement will not, however, automatically terminate any disciplinary proceeding then pending against the attorney arising out of the matters for which the attorney was prosecuted.
- (e) Effect of Other Crimes. Evidence that an attorney committed a crime other than a “serious crime” as defined in this rule may form the basis for a disciplinary proceeding or other action against the attorney, even though it may not result in a summary suspension.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 83.6.9 RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE

- (a) Generally. When an attorney who is a member of the bar of this district or who is permitted to practice in this court has been disbarred or suspended in any other jurisdiction, the attorney may be subject to reciprocal discipline as set forth below.
- (b) Notice and Show-Cause Order. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment, order, or other official record demonstrating that the attorney has been disciplined by another court, this court shall promptly issue a notice to the attorney with the following:
 - (1) a copy of the judgment or order or other official record; and
 - (2) an order to show cause, within 28 days after service of the order, why this court should not impose the identical discipline.
- (c) Disciplinary Action or Referral. If the attorney fails to respond within the 28-day period, or does not contest the matter, this court shall impose the identical discipline imposed by the other court. If the attorney responds within that period and contests the matter, the matter shall be referred to the presiding judge in accordance with L.R. 83.6.5(c) for further review and action.
- (d) Effect of Stay. In the event the action imposed in the other jurisdiction has been stayed there, any reciprocal action taken by this court shall be deferred until such stay expires.
- (e) Effect of Decision by Other Court.
 - (1) If, with respect to the action taken by the other court, the presiding judge finds:
 - (A) that the procedure was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;
 - (B) that there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that this court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the other court's conclusion on that subject;
 - (C) that the imposition of substantially similar discipline or the making of the same finding by this court would result in grave injustice; or
 - (D) that the conduct at issue is deemed by the presiding judge to warrant substantially different disciplinary action, the presiding judge may enter such other orders as he or she deems appropriate under the circumstances.

- (2) In all other respects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that an attorney has been guilty of misconduct shall establish conclusively the misconduct for purposes of any proceeding under this rule.
- (f) Definition of “Court.” The term “court” shall be defined for purposes of this rule as any court, or other governmental body having supervisory or disciplinary authority over attorneys, of the United States, any state, the District of Columbia, or any territory, commonwealth, or possession of the United States.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 83.6.10 REINSTATEMENT

- (a) Reinstatement after Suspension. An attorney who has been suspended shall be automatically reinstated at the end of the period of suspension upon the filing of an affidavit stating that:

 - (B) file an affidavit of compliance with any applicable court order imposing conditions as a part of attorney discipline; and
 - (C) pay the approved attorney reinstatement fee to the clerk.
 - (3) Waiting Period. An attorney who has been disbarred after hearing or by consent may not apply for reinstatement until at least 5 years after the effective date of disbarment.
 - (4) Procedure on Application. An application for reinstatement shall be referred to the presiding judge in accordance with L.R. 83.6.5(c) for review and further action.
 - (A) The presiding judge may designate a magistrate or bankruptcy judge to issue a report and recommendation as to whether or not the application should be approved.
 - (B) The presiding judge may appoint special counsel to conduct an investigation, to make a report to the court, and to perform any other duty set forth in the order of appointment.
 - (C) After notice, the presiding judge shall schedule a hearing on the application.
 - (D) The presiding judge may refer the matter to a magistrate judge for report and recommendation pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

- (5) Standard for Reinstatement. The applicant shall have the burden of demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is qualified and fit to practice law before this court and that the applicant's resumption of the practice of law before this court will not adversely affect the interests of potential clients, public confidence in the integrity of the bar of this court, or the proper administration of justice.

- (6) Approval by District Court Required. If the presiding judge grants the application of an applicant who had been previously disbarred, the matter will be referred to the full court. No order of reinstatement after an order of disbarment shall take effect except upon a majority vote of the district judges of the full court.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 83.6.11 PUBLIC ACCESS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

- (a) Matters Presumed to Be Public. All matters before the court concerning alleged attorney misconduct and discipline are presumptively public.
- (b) Exceptions. The court, on its own motion or on request, may redact or protect the following types of matters and file them under seal.
- (1) Victim or Third-Party Privacy. Any matters reasonably necessary to protect the privacy of a victim of attorney misconduct or of any innocent third party.
 - (2) Privilege. Any matters reasonably necessary to protect information subject to a valid attorney-client or other privilege.
 - (3) Grand Jury or Criminal Investigation. Any matters reasonably necessary to protect information subject to grand jury secrecy or to protect an ongoing criminal investigation.
 - (4) Personal Privacy. Any matters of a highly personal or private nature; provided, however, that if the personal or private matter was the basis, at least in part, of a disciplinary action, a decision not to take disciplinary action, or a decision to mitigate discipline, public disclosure is required in sufficient detail to permit an informed public understanding of the court's decision.
 - (5) Exceptional Circumstances. Any other matters that, due to exceptional circumstances presented in the case, should not be disclosed in the interests of justice.

Any such redaction or protective order shall be in writing or made on the record and shall state the reasons for the order. The court, in fashioning such an order, shall give due regard to the need to protect the public from further attorney misconduct and to maintain public confidence in the integrity of the court.

Effective January 1, 2015.

RULE 106.1 GRAND JURIES

- (a) Confidentiality of Names. The names of any jurors drawn from the qualified jury wheel and selected to sit on a grand jury shall be kept confidential and not made public or disclosed to any person not employed by the court, except as otherwise authorized by a court order in an individual case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1867(f).
- (b) Sealing of Documents. All subpoenas, motions, pleadings, and other documents filed with the clerk concerning or contesting grand jury proceedings shall be sealed and impounded unless otherwise ordered by the court based upon a showing of particularized need. Impoundment under this rule shall not preclude necessary service of papers on opposing parties or their counsel nor prohibit the clerk from providing copies of papers to the party or counsel filing same.

RULE 106.2 RELEASE OF INFORMATION BY COURTHOUSE PERSONNEL IN CRIMINAL CASES

RULE 112.2 EXCLUDABLE DELAY PURSUANT TO THE SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

- (a) Excludable Delay Generally. The court, having found that a fair and prompt resolution of criminal cases is best served by minimizing formal motion practices and establishing the system of discovery set forth in these local rules, has determined that the following periods of time may be excluded, under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(1)(D) & (H) and (h)(7)(A), to serve the ends of justice in order to accomplish such purposes:
- (1) the period from arraignment to the initial status conference conducted under L.R. 116.5(a), during which period the parties shall produce the automatic discovery required under L.R. 116.1(b) and (c) and develop their discovery plans, and defendants shall consider the need for pretrial motions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12;
 - (2) no more than 14 days from the filing of a copy of a letter requesting discovery under L.R. 116.3(a);
 - (3) no more than 14 days from the date on which a written response to a letter requesting discovery under L.R. 116.3(a) is due to the filing of a motion seeking the discovery, provided that the party receiving the discovery request either refuses to furnish the requested discovery or fails to respond to the request, and the party requesting the discovery actually files a motion seeking discovery.
- (b) Requirement of Order of Excludable Delay. The time periods indicated above will not be automatically excluded. All such periods of excludable delay must be included in an order issued by the judicial officer.
- (c) Exclusion of Additional Periods. Nothing in this rule shall preclude the court from excluding additional periods of time as appropriate under 18 U.S.C. §3161(h).

RULE 116.1 DISCOVERY IN CRIMINAL CASES

(a) Discovery Alternatives.

- (1) Automatic Discovery. In all felony cases and Class A misdemeanor cases (except those within the Central Violations Bureau), unless a defendant waives automatic discovery in accordance with subsection (b) below, all discoverable material and information in the possession, custody, or control of the government and the defendant, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorneys for those parties, must be disclosed to the opposing party without formal motion practice at the times and under the automatic procedures specified in these local rules.
- (2) Non-Automatic Discovery. In petty offense cases and Class A misdemeanor cases within the Central Violations Bureau, and in cases where the defendant waives automatic discovery in accordance with subsection (b) below, the defendant must obtain discovery directly through the provisions of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure in the manner provided under L.R. 116.3.

- (b) Waiver. A defendant shall be deemed to have requested all the discovery authorized by Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1) unless that defendant files a Waiver of Request for Disclosure (the “Waiver”) at arraignment or within such additional time as the court may allow upon motion made by the defendant at arraignment. If the Waiver is not timely filed, the defendant shall be subject to the correlative reciprocal discovery obligations of Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b) and this rule and shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusion of time for Speedy Trial Act purposes as provided in L.R. 112.2(a). If the court allows the defendant additional time in which to file the Waiver, and no Waiver is timely filed, the 28-day period for providing automatic discovery established in subsection (c) of this rule shall begin to run on the last date allowed for filing the Waiver, and all dates for filing discovery letters and motions established in L.R. 116.3 shall be adjusted accordingly.

(c) Automatic Discovery Provided by the Government.

- (1) Following Arraignment. Unless a defendant has filed the Waiver in accordance with subsection (b) above, within 28 days of arraignment (except a Rule 11 arraignment on an information), absent a contrary schedule established by the court pursuant to subsections (e) and (f) below, the government must produce to the defendant:
 - (A) Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 Materials. All of the information to which the defendant is entitled under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1).

- (i) that resulted in the seizure of evidence or led to the discovery of evidence that the government intends to use in its case-in-chief; or
 - (ii) that was obtained for or conducted of the defendant's property, residence, place of business, or person, in connection with investigation of the charges contained in the indictment.
- (C) Electronic Surveillance.
- (i) a written description of any interception of wire, oral, or electronic communications as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2510, relating to the charges in the indictment in which the defendant was intercepted and a statement whether the government intends to use any such communications as evidence in its case-in-chief; and
 - (ii) a copy of any application for authorization to intercept such communications relating to the charges contained in the indictment in which the defendant was named as an interceptee or pursuant to which the defendant was intercepted, together with all supporting affidavits, the court orders authorizing such interceptions, and the court orders directing the sealing of intercepted communications under 18 U.S.C. § 2518.
- (D) Consensual Interceptions.
- (i) a written description of any interception of wire, oral, or electronic communications, relating to the charges contained in the indictment, made with the consent of one of the parties to the communication ("consensual interceptions"), in which the defendant was intercepted or which the government intends to use in its case-in-chief.
 - (ii) nothing in this subsection is intended to determine the circumstances, if any, under which, or the time at which, the attorney for the government must review and produce communications of a defendant in custody consensually recorded by the institution in which that defendant is held.

(E) Unindicted Coconspirators. As to each conspiracy charged in the indictment, the name of any person asserted to be a known unindicted coconspirator. If subsequent litigation requires that the name of any such unindicted coconspirator be referenced in any filing directly with the court, that information must be redacted from any public filing and be filed under L.R. 7.2 pending further order of the court.

(F) Identifications.

(i) A written statement whether the defendant was a subject of an investigative identification procedure used with a witness the government anticipates calling in its case-in-chief involving a lineup, show-up, photospread or other display of an image of the defendant.

(ii) If the defendant was a subject of such a procedure, a copy of any, recording, photospread, image or other tangible evidence reflecting, used in or memorializing the identification procedure.

(2) Exculpatory Information. The timing and substance of the disclosure of exculpatory evidence is governed by L.R. 116.2.

(d) Automatic Discovery Provided by the Defendant. Unless a defendant has filed the Waiver in accordance with subsection (b) within 28 days after arraignment (except a Rule 11 arraignment on an information), absent a contrary schedule established by the court pursuant to subsections (e) and (f), the defendant must produce to the government all material described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b)(1)(A) and (B).

(e) Deadline for Automatic Discovery. At arraignment, the judicial officer shall set a date for completion of automatic discovery in accordance with this rule. The date may be extended on motion or request of any party.

(f) Alternative Discovery Schedule. The parties shall inform the court at arraignment, or as soon as practicable thereafter, of any issues that might require an alternative discovery schedule. Requests for an alternative discovery schedule in complex cases shall be liberally granted. The court shall not allow an alternative discovery schedule without providing a date for the completion of automatic discovery.

(g) Non-Automatic Discovery Provided by the Parties. If the defendant files the Waiver, all requests for discovery and reciprocal discovery, and all responses to such requests, shall be made in writing and filed with the court. Unless a greater or lesser amount of time is established by the court upon motion and for good cause shown, within 28 days of receiving a letter or motion requesting discovery, a party shall produce all discovery responsive to those requests to which it does not object and shall file a written response to those requests (if any) to which it does object, explaining the basis for its objections.

Adopted September 1, 1990; amended effective December 1, 1998; amended effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.2 DISCLOSURE OF EXCULPATORY EVIDENCE

- (a) Definition. Exculpatory information is information that is material and favorable to the accused and includes, but is not necessarily limited to, information that tends to:
- (1) cast doubt on defendant's guilt as to any essential element in any count in the indictment or information;
 - (2) cast doubt on the admissibility of evidence that the government anticipates using in its case-in-chief, that might be subject to a motion to suppress or exclude, which would, if allowed, be appealable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3731;

 - (4) diminish the degree of the defendant's culpability or the defendant's Offense Level under the United States Sentencing Guidelines.

 - (A) information that would tend directly to negate the defendant's guilt concerning any count in the indictment or information;
 - (B) information that would cast doubt on the admissibility of evidence that the government anticipates using in its case-in-chief and that could be subject to a motion to suppress or exclude, which would, if allowed, be appealable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3731; and
 - (C) a statement whether any promise, reward, or inducement has been given to any witness whom the government anticipates calling in its case-in-chief, identifying by name each such witness and each promise, reward, or inducement, and a copy of any promise, reward, or inducement reduced to writing
 - (D) a copy of any criminal record of any witness whom the government anticipates calling in its case-in-chief, identifying by name each such witness;

 - (F) a written description of the failure of any percipient witness identified by name to make a positive identification of a defendant, if any identification procedure has been held with such a witness with respect to the crime at issue.
- (2) Not later than 21 days before the trial date established by the judicial officer who will preside at the trial:
- (A) any information that tends to cast doubt on the credibility or accuracy of any witness or evidence that the government anticipates calling or offering in its case-in-chief,
 - (B) any inconsistent statement, or a description of such a statement, made orally or in writing by any witness whom the government anticipates calling in its case-in-chief, regarding the alleged criminal conduct of the defendant;

 - (D) information reflecting bias or prejudice against the defendant by any witness whom the government anticipates calling in its case-in-chief;
 - (E) a written description of any prosecutable federal offense known by the government to have been committed by any witness whom the government anticipates calling in its case-in-chief;

- (3) No later than the close of the defendant's case: exculpatory information regarding any witness or evidence that the government intends to use in rebuttal.

- (4) Before any plea or to the submission by the defendant of any objections to the PreSentence Report, whichever first occurs: a written summary of any information in the government's possession that tends to diminish the degree of the defendant's culpability or the defendant's Offense Level under the United States Sentencing Guidelines.
- (5) If an item of exculpatory information can reasonably be deemed to fall into more than one of the foregoing categories, it shall be deemed for purposes of determining when it must be produced to fall into the category which requires the earliest production.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.3 DISCOVERY MOTION PRACTICE

- (a) Letter Request for Discovery. Within 14 days of the completion of automatic discovery, any party by letter to the opposing party may request additional discovery. The opposing party shall reply in writing to the requests contained in such letter, no later than 14 days after its receipt, stating whether that party agrees or does not agree to furnish the requested discovery and, if that party agrees, when the party will furnish the requested discovery. A copy of the discovery request letter and any response must also be filed with the clerk's office.
- (b) Agreement to Provide Discovery. If a party agrees in writing to provide the requested discovery, the agreement shall be enforceable to the same extent as a court order requiring the agreed-upon disclosure.
- (c) Explanation for Lack of Agreement. If a party does not agree to provide the requested information, that party must provide a written statement of the basis for its position.
- (d) No Need to Request Automatic Discovery. A defendant participating in automatic discovery should not request information expressly required to be produced under L.R. 116.1, because all such information is required to be produced automatically in any event.
- (e) No Motion before Response to Request. Except in an emergency, no discovery motion, or request for a bill of particulars, shall be filed until the opposing party has declined in writing to provide the requested discovery or has failed to respond in writing within 14 days of receipt of a written discovery request.
- (f) No Motion before Conference with Opponent. Except in an emergency, no discovery motion, or request for a bill of particulars, shall be filed before, the moving party has conferred, or attempted in good faith to confer, with opposing counsel to attempt to eliminate or narrow the areas of disagreement. In the motion or request, the moving party shall certify that a good faith attempt was made to eliminate or narrow the issues raised in the motion through a conference with opposing counsel or that a good faith attempt to comply with the requirement was precluded by the opposing party's unwillingness or inability to confer.
- (g) Timing of Motion. Any discovery motion shall be filed within 14 days of receipt of the opposing party's written reply to the letter requesting discovery described in subsection (a) or within 14 days of the passage of the period within which the opposing party has the obligation to reply pursuant to subsection (a). The discovery motion shall state with particularity each request for discovery, followed by a concise statement of the moving party's position with respect to such request, including citations of authority.
- (h) Multi-Defendant Cases. In multi-defendant cases, except with leave of court, the defendant parties must confer and, to the maximum extent possible in view of any potentially differing positions of the defendants, consolidate their written requests to the government for any discovery. If a discovery motion is to be filed, the defendant parties must endeavor to the maximum extent possible to file a single consolidated motion. Each defendant need not join in every written request submitted to the government or filed in a consolidated motion, but all defense requests and motions, whether or not joined in by each defendant must to the maximum extent possible be contained within a single document or filing.

- (i) Timing of Response to Motions. The opposing party must file its response to all discovery motions within 14 days of receipt. In its response, the opposing party, as to each request, shall make a concise statement of the opposing party's basis for opposing that request, including citations to authority.
- (j) Subsequent Requests. The procedure set forth in this rule shall apply to any subsequent requests for discovery. When filing a discovery motion that is based on a subsequent discovery request, the moving party must additionally certify that the discovery request resulting in the motion was prompted by information not known, or issues not reasonably foreseeable, to the moving party before the deadline for discovery motions, or that the delay in making the request was for other good cause, which the moving party must describe with particularity.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.4 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR AUDIO AND VIDEO RECORDINGS

(a) Availability of Audio and Video Recordings

- (1) The government must provide at least one copy of all audio and video recordings in its possession that are discoverable for examination and review by the defendant parties.
- (2) If a defendant requests additional copies, the government must make arrangements to provide or to enable that defendant to make such copies at that defendant's expense.
- (3) If in a multidefendant case any defendant is in custody, the government must insure that an extra copy of all audio and video recordings is available for review by the defendant(s) in custody.

(b) Composite Recordings, Preliminary Transcripts and Final Transcripts. The parties must make arrangements promptly to provide or make available for inspection and copying by opposing counsel all:

- (1) Composite electronic surveillance or consensual interception recordings to be used in that party's case-in-chief at trial, once prepared.
- (2) Preliminary transcripts, once prepared. A preliminary transcript may not be used at trial or in any hearing on a pretrial motion without the prior approval of the court based on a finding that the preliminary transcript is accurate in material respects and it is in the interests of the administration of justice to use it.
- (3) Final transcripts, once prepared.
- (4) Nothing in this rule shall be construed to require a party to prepare composite recordings, or preliminary or final transcripts, of any recording.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.5 STATUS CONFERENCES AND STATUS REPORTS PROCEDURE

- (a) Initial Status Conference. On or about the 14th day following the date scheduled for the completion of automatic discovery, the magistrate judge shall convene an initial status conference with the attorneys for the parties who will conduct the trial. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, counsel shall confer and file a joint memorandum no later than 7 days before the initial status conference. The joint memorandum must include the following issues and any other issues relevant to the progress of the case, which counsel must be prepared to discuss at the conference:
- (1) the status of automatic discovery and any pending discovery requests;
 - (2) the timing of any additional discovery to be produced;
 - (3) the timing of any additional discovery requests;
 - (4) whether any protective orders addressing the disclosure or dissemination of sensitive information concerning victims, witnesses, defendants, or law enforcement sources or techniques may be appropriate;
 - (5) the timing of any pretrial motions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b);
 - (6) the timing of expert witness disclosures;
 - (7) periods of excludable delay under the Speedy Trial Act;
 - (8) the timing of an interim status conference or final status conference, as the case may require.

If the defendant indicates an intention to change his or her plea to guilty, or if discovery is substantially complete and the only issues that remain or are anticipated are ones appropriately resolved by the district judge, the magistrate judge may, at the parties' request, treat the initial status conference as a final status conference under subsection (c) of this rule and transfer the case to the district judge along with the final status report required by subsection (d). Otherwise, the magistrate judge shall issue a scheduling order and an order of excludable delay that reflect the deadlines and periods of excludable delay established at the initial status conference.

- (b) Interim Status Conference. At the initial status conference, unless the magistrate judge decides to transfer the case to the district judge under subsection (a), the magistrate judge shall schedule an interim status conference or a final status conference, as needed, giving due regard to the complexity of the case and the period of time that the parties expect will be required to complete discovery and pretrial motions.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, counsel shall confer and file a joint memorandum no later than 7 days before the interim status conference. The joint memorandum must address the following issues, and any other issues relevant to the progress of the case, which counsel must be prepared to discuss at the conference:

- (1) the status of automatic discovery and any pending discovery requests;
- (2) the timing of any additional discovery to be produced;
- (3) the timing of any additional discovery requests;
- (4) whether any protective orders addressing the disclosure or dissemination of sensitive information concerning victims, witnesses, defendants, or law enforcement sources or techniques may be appropriate;
- (5) the status of any pretrial motions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b);
- (6) the timing of expert witness disclosures;
- (7) defenses of insanity, public authority, or alibi;
- (8) periods of excludable delay under the Speedy Trial Act;
- (9) the status of any plea discussions and likelihood and estimated length of trial;
- (10) the timing of the final status conference or any further interim status conference.

The magistrate judge may waive the interim status conference if the parties request such a waiver and the magistrate judge determines that the information in the joint memorandum obviates the need for the conference.

If the defendant indicates an intention to change his or her plea to guilty, or if discovery is complete and the only issues that remain or are anticipated are ones appropriately resolved by the district judge, the magistrate judge may, at the parties' request, treat an interim status conference as a final status conference under subsection (c) and transfer the case to the district judge along with the final status report required by subsection (d). Otherwise, the magistrate judge shall issue a scheduling order and an order of excludable delay that reflect the deadlines and periods of excludable delay established at the interim status conference or in the parties' joint memorandum, as the case may be.

- (c) Final Status Conference. In all felony cases and Class A misdemeanor cases to be heard by a district judge, before the magistrate judge issues the final status report required by subsection (d) of this rule, the magistrate judge shall, if necessary, convene a final status conference with the attorneys who will conduct the trial. Counsel shall confer and file a joint memorandum no later than 7 days before the final status conference. The joint memorandum must address the following issues, and any other issues relevant to the progress of the case, which counsel must be prepared to discuss at the conference:

- (1) whether the defendant requests that the case be transferred to the district judge for a Rule 11 hearing;
- (2) whether, alternatively, the parties move for a pretrial conference before the district judge in order to resolve pretrial motions (if any) and schedule a trial date and, if so:
 - (A) whether the parties have produced all discovery they intend to produce and, if not, the identity of any additional discovery and its expected production date;
 - (B) whether all discovery requests and motions have been made and resolved and, if not, the nature of the outstanding requests or motions and the date they are expected to be resolved;
 - (C) whether all motions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b) have been filed and responded to and, if not, the motions that are expected to be filed and the date they will be ready for resolution;
 - (D) whether the court should order any additional periods of excludable delay, the number of non-excludable days remaining, and whether any matter is currently tolling the running of the time period under the Speedy Trial Act; and
 - (E) the estimated number of trial days; and
- (3) any other matters specific to the particular case that would assist the district judge upon transfer of the case from the magistrate judge.

If the joint memorandum permits the magistrate judge to prepare the final status report without the necessity of an additional status conference, the magistrate judge may waive the final status conference and issue an order transferring the case to the district judge.

- (d) Final Status Report. After the final status conference, or upon receipt of the joint final status memorandum if no conference is deemed necessary, the magistrate judge shall transfer the case to the district judge along with a final status report that incorporates the information provided by the parties at the final status conference or in the joint final status memorandum, as the case may be.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective December 1, 2009; February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.6 DECLINATION OF DISCLOSURE AND PROTECTIVE ORDERS

- (a) Declination. If in the judgment of a party it would be detrimental to the interests of justice to make any of the disclosures required by these rules, such disclosures may be declined, before or at the time that disclosure is due, and the opposing party advised in writing, with a copy filed with the clerk, of the specific matters on which disclosure is declined and the reasons for declining. If the opposing party seeks to challenge the declination, that party shall file a motion to compel that states the reasons why disclosure is sought. Upon the filing of such motion, except to the extent otherwise provided by law, the burden shall be on the party declining disclosure to demonstrate, by affidavit and supporting memorandum citing legal authority, why such disclosure should not be made. The declining party may file its submissions in support of declination under seal pursuant to L.R. 7.2 for the court's in camera consideration. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a redacted version of each such submission shall be served on the moving party, which may reply.
- (b) Ex Parte Motions for Protective Orders. This rule does not preclude any party from moving under L.R. 7.2 and ex parte (that is, without serving the opposing party) for leave to file an ex parte motion for a protective order with respect to any discovery matter. Nor does this rule limit the court's power to accept or reject an ex parte motion or to decide such a motion in any manner it deems appropriate.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.7 DUTY TO SUPPLEMENT

The duties established by these local rules are continuing. Each party is under a duty, when it learns that a prior disclosure was in some respect inaccurate or incomplete to supplement promptly any disclosure required by these local rules or by the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998.

RULE 116.8 NOTIFICATION TO RELEVANT LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES OF DISCOVERY OBLIGATIONS

The attorney for the government shall inform all federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies formally participating in the criminal investigation that resulted in the case of the discovery obligations set forth in these local rules and obtain any information subject to disclosure from each such agency.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998.

RULE 116.9 PRESERVATION OF NOTES

- (a) General Rule. All contemporaneous notes, memoranda, statements, reports, surveillance logs, recordings, and other documents (regardless of the medium in which they are stored) memorializing matters relevant to the charges contained in the indictment made by or in the custody of any law enforcement officer whose agency at the time was formally participating in an investigation intended, in whole or in part, to result in a federal indictment shall be preserved until the entry of judgment unless otherwise ordered by the court.
- (b) Rough Drafts. These rules do not require the preservation of rough drafts of reports after a subsequent draft of final report is prepared.
- (c) Established Retention Procedures. These rules do not require modification of a government agency's established procedure for the retention and disposal of documents when the agency does not reasonably anticipate a criminal prosecution.

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 116.10 REQUIREMENTS OF TABLE OF CONTENTS FOR VOLUMINOUS DISCOVERY

Any party producing more than 1,000 pages of discovery in a criminal case shall provide a table of contents that describes, in general terms, the type and origin of the documents (for example, “bank records from Sovereign Bank for John Smith;” “grand jury testimony of Officer Jones”) and the location of the documents so described within the larger set (for example, by Bates number).

Adopted January 3, 2012; effective February 1, 2012.

RULE 117.1 PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

- (a) Initial Pretrial Conference. Within 14 days of receiving the magistrate judge's final status report, or at the earliest practicable time before trial consistent with the Speedy Trial Act, the district judge to whom the case is assigned must conduct a Rule 11 hearing, if the defendant has requested one, or else must convene an initial pretrial conference, which counsel who will conduct the trial must attend. At the initial pretrial conference the district judge must:
- (1) determine the number of days remaining before trial must begin under the Speedy Trial Act;
 - (2) confirm that all discovery has been produced, all discovery disputes have been resolved, and all pretrial motions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b) have been filed and briefed, and schedule any necessary hearings or additional briefing on any pretrial motions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b);
 - (3) establish a reliable trial date, which should not, except upon motion of the defendant, be less than 30 days after any evidentiary hearing on a pretrial motion under Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b);
 - (4) unless the declination procedure provided by L.R. 116.6 has previously been invoked, order the government to disclose to the defendant no later than 21 days before the trial date:
 - (A) the exculpatory information identified in L.R. 116.2 (b)(2); and
 - (B) a general description (including the approximate date, time and place) of any crime, wrong, or act the government proposes to use pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 404(b);
 - (5) determine whether the parties have furnished statements, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 3500(e) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2(f), of witnesses they intend to call in their cases-in-chief and, if not, when they propose to do so;
 - (6) determine whether any party objects to complying with the presumptive timing directives of subsections (a)(8) and (a)(9) for the disclosure of witnesses and identification of exhibits and materials. If any party expresses an objection, the court may decide the issues(s) presented at the initial pretrial conference or may order briefing and/or later argument on such issue(s);
 - (7) establish a schedule for the filing and briefing of possible motions in limine and for the filing of proposed voir dire questions, proposed jury instructions, and, if appropriate, trial briefs;

- (8) unless an objection has been made pursuant to subsection(a)(6), order that at least 7 days before the trial date the government must:
- (A) provide the defendant with the names and addresses of witnesses the government intends to call at trial (i) in its case-in-chief, and (ii) in its rebuttal to the defendant's alibi defense (if the defendant serves a L.R. 12.1(a)(2) notice). If the government subsequently forms an intent to call any other witness, the government shall promptly notify the defendant of the names and address of that prospective witness. The government shall not, however, provide the defendant the addresses of any victims whom it intends to call in its rebuttal to the defendant's alibi defense (if the defendant serves a L.R. 12.1(a)(2) notice) except pursuant to subsection (a)(9).
 - (B) provide the defendant with copies of the exhibits and a premarked list of the exhibits the government intends to use in its case-in-chief. If the government subsequently decides to offer any additional exhibit in its case-in-chief, the government shall promptly provide the opposing party with a copy of the exhibit and a supplemental exhibit list;
- (9) if the defendant establishes a need for the address of a victim the government intends to call as a witness in its rebuttal to the defendant's alibi defense (if the defendant serves a L.R. 12.1(a)(2) notice), the court may:
- (A) order the government to provide the information in writing to the defendant or the defendant's attorney; or
 - (B) fashion a reasonable procedure that allows preparation of the defense and also protects the victim's interests.
- (10) unless an objection has been made pursuant to subsection (a)(6), order that at least 7 days before the trial the defendant must provide the government with witness and exhibit identification and materials to the same extent the government is obligated to do so under subsection (a)(8);
- (11) determine whether the parties will stipulate to any facts that are not in dispute;
- (12) establish a date for a final pretrial conference, to be held not more than 7 days before the trial date, to resolve any matters that must be decided before trial, unless all parties advise the court that such a conference is not necessary and the district judge concurs.

- (b) Special Orders. The district judge who will preside at trial may, upon motion of a party or on the judge's own initiative, modify any of the requirements of subsection (a) of this rule in the interests of justice.
- (c) Interim Pretrial Conferences. If, at the conclusion of the initial pretrial conference, a reliable trial date cannot be established, or if a trial date is established but later continued by the court, the court shall schedule an interim status conference at which the district judge, in consultation with the parties, must determine the time remaining under the Speedy Trial Act before which trial must begin and must adjust, as needed, the scheduling dates called for by subsections (a)(4)-(12).

Adopted September 8, 1998; effective December 1, 1998; amended effective December 1, 2009; February 1, 2012.

RULE 117.2 SUBPOENAS IN CRIMINAL CASES INVOLVING COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL

- (a) Issuance of Subpoenas. In any criminal matter in which the defendant is represented by the Federal Public Defender or other court-appointed counsel, upon request of such counsel the clerk shall issue a subpoena for hearing or trial in blank, signed and sealed, to counsel without the necessity for an individual court order.
- (b) Service of Subpoenas. Upon presentation of such a subpoena, the United States Marshal shall serve it in the same manner as in other criminal cases pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 17(b).
- (c) Process Costs and Witness Fees. Subpoenas issued under subsection (a) of this Rule are issued upon approval of the court. The United States Marshal shall pay the process costs and fees of any witness subpoenaed pursuant to this rule as provided in Fed. R. Crim. P. 17(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1825.
- (d) Subpoenas in Certain Hearings. A subpoena may not be issued under this rule to compel the attendance of a witness in
 - (1) a preliminary hearing pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1 or Rule 32.1(b)(1);
 - (2) a detention hearing held pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f); or

Civ. P. 83 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8026, this rule and its subsections govern the practice of bankruptcy appeals before United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. These rules are not intended to restrict the District Court's discretion as to any aspect of an appeal from a bankruptcy court's order. The bankruptcy court clerk shall enclose a copy of these rules with the notice of appeal given to each party appealing to the District Court in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8003(c); provided, however, that failure of the clerk to enclose a copy of this rule shall not suspend its operation.

Upon receipt of the notice of appeal, the District Court clerk shall immediately docket the appeal.

(c) Notice of Dismissal. Upon dismissal of the appeal by the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy court clerk shall promptly notify the District Court.

(b) Failure to File a Motion with a Notice of Appeal. If an appellant timely files a notice of appeal under this rule, but does not file with the notice a motion for leave to appeal, the District Court may order the appellant to file a motion for leave to appeal within 14 days or other specified time, or may treat the notice of appeal as the motion for leave to appeal and either grant or deny it.

R. Bankr. P. 9019. The District Court shall remand the matter to the bankruptcy court for further proceedings in the event the settlement or compromise requires approval by the bankruptcy court under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019.

(c) Motions to Dismiss the Appeal. A motion to dismiss an appeal shall state the factual and legal grounds in support of dismissal. The District Court shall determine any motion to dismiss an appeal, except that the bankruptcy court may determine a motion to dismiss an appeal on the ground that it was untimely filed. Motions to dismiss an appeal on the grounds of lateness shall be filed in the bankruptcy court. All other motions to dismiss an appeal shall be filed in and determined by the District Court.

(d) Determination of Appeal. At any time, on motion of any appellant, any appellee, or sua
